"MRS. L" ENJOYS TEACHING HER BIRD NEW WORDS.

There could be no one more deserving to whom we could dedicate the 1962 Annual, than Mrs. Mildred Ladley. Through her many helpful years as literary adviser to the annual staff and English teacher, everyone who has known her has grown to appreciate her and the extra part she has played in Withrow's Parade. For her sense of humor and patience, she is well liked by both students and fellow teachers. As a teacher Mrs. Ladley exhibited the one exclusive sign of thorough knowledge. Her students have each graduated with a greater understanding of literature and life. Indeed there is much for which to thank Mrs. Ladley. Possibly in this dedication a commencement in thanking her can be begun. To you, Mrs. Ladley, we dedicate the 1962 "Tiger Parade" in gratitude.

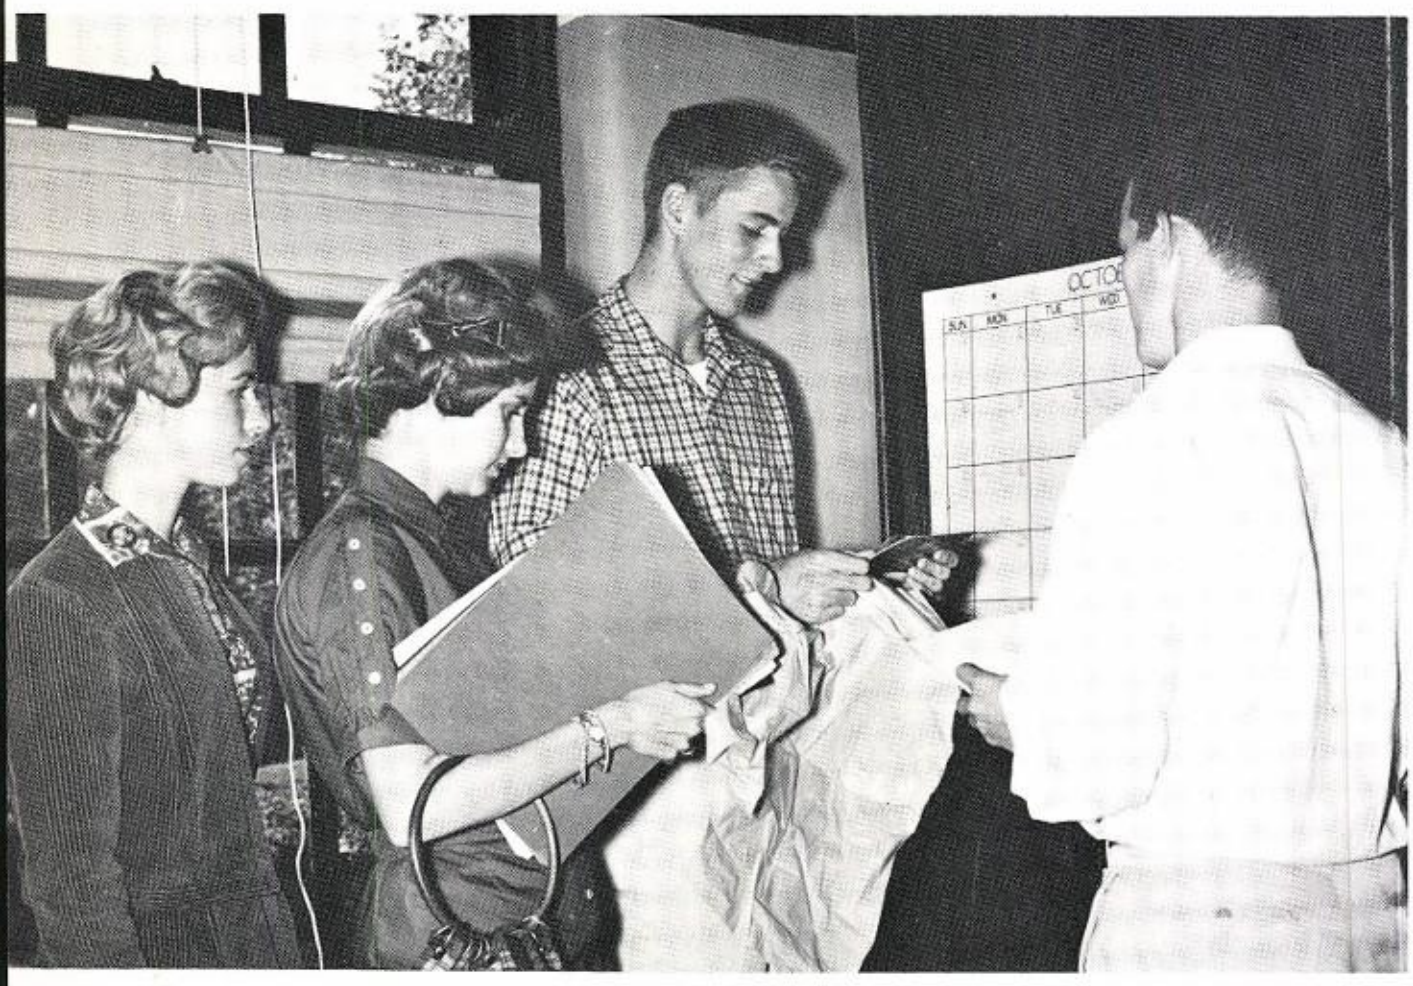
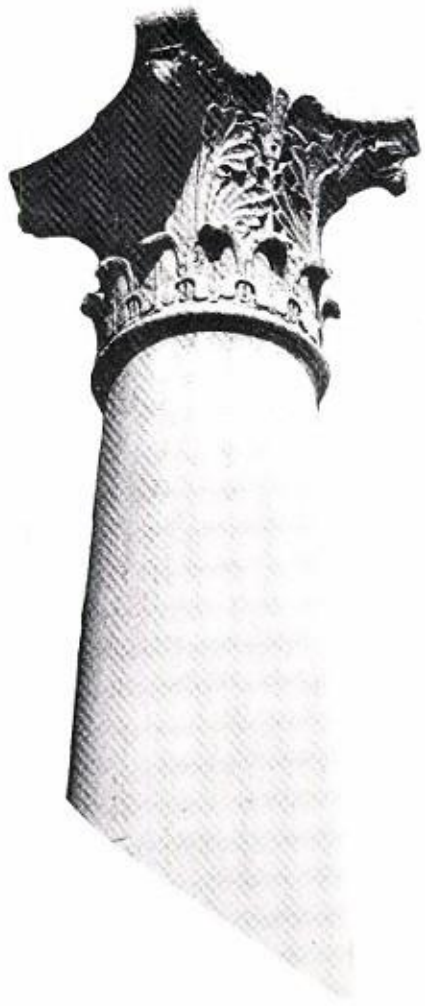
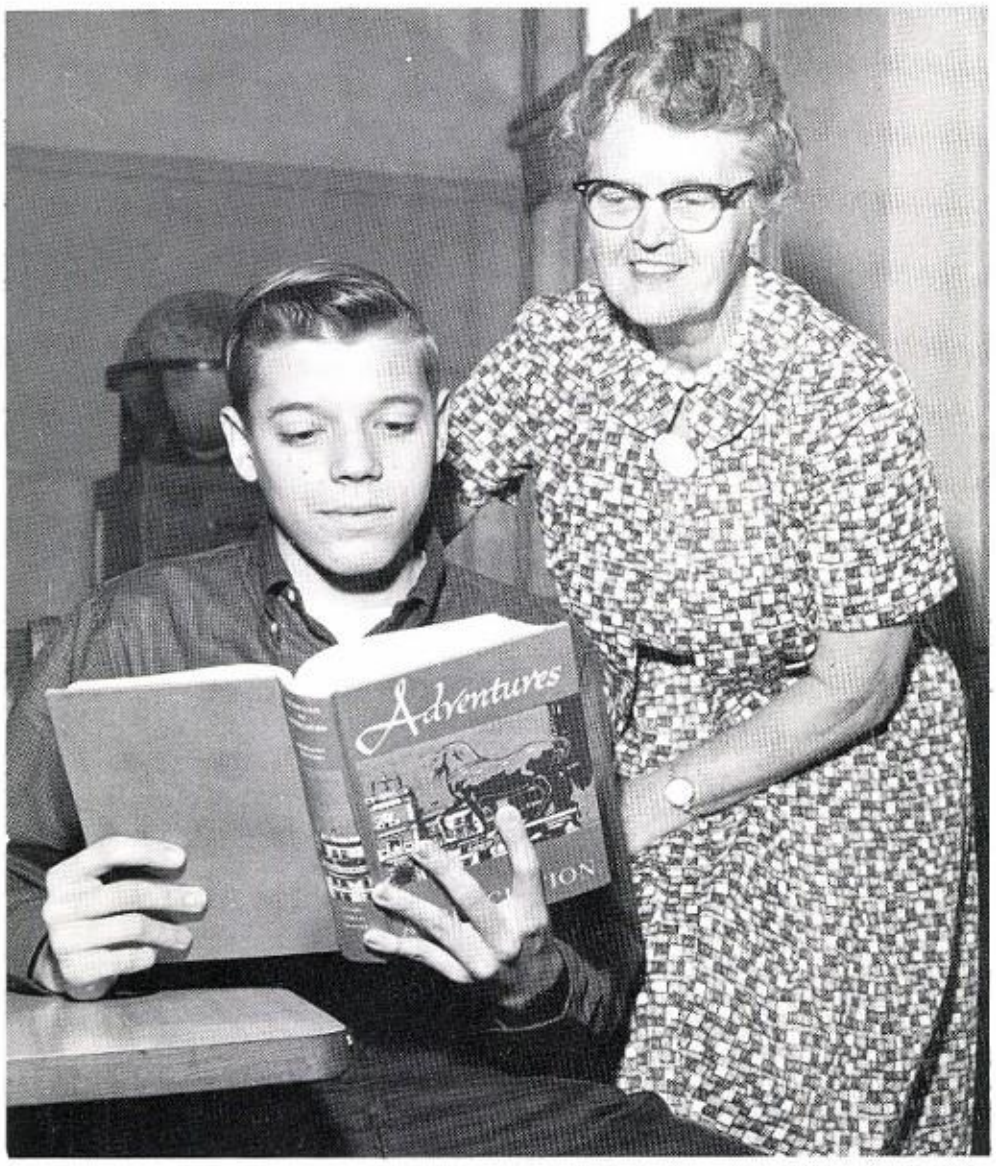
FLOURISHING HEDGES, FLOWERING SHRUBBERY, AND TALL, STATELY TREES PROVIDE AN INVIGORATING SETTING FOR HARD-WORKING STUDENTS.

ONE FUNCTION OF STUDENT COUNCIL IS ARRANGING A CALENDAR TO AVOID CONFLICTING DATES.







FRIENDLY ADVICE FROM THE TEACHER AIDS THE STUDENT IN HIS ACADEMIC GOAL.

Complementary activities, education, and social life, provide smooth connections between the required six and added one or two hours spent at school each day. In the past many organizations have added color to the ever changing wants and needs of today's students. Honor clubs add incentive to those skilled in a particular academic field. Athletics bring forth hidden talents in both boys' and girls' sports. Other organizations offer a chance to gain insight and knowledge into new and various crafts. Even the social clubs do their share in bringing together those with the same principal interests. Thus for every pupil there is a group fitted to his needs. Each can enjoy the harmonious mixing of school work and extracurricular activities. Through a conscientious effort on the part of both the members and the advisers of each organization every student can be made to feel at home in the clubs of his choice.

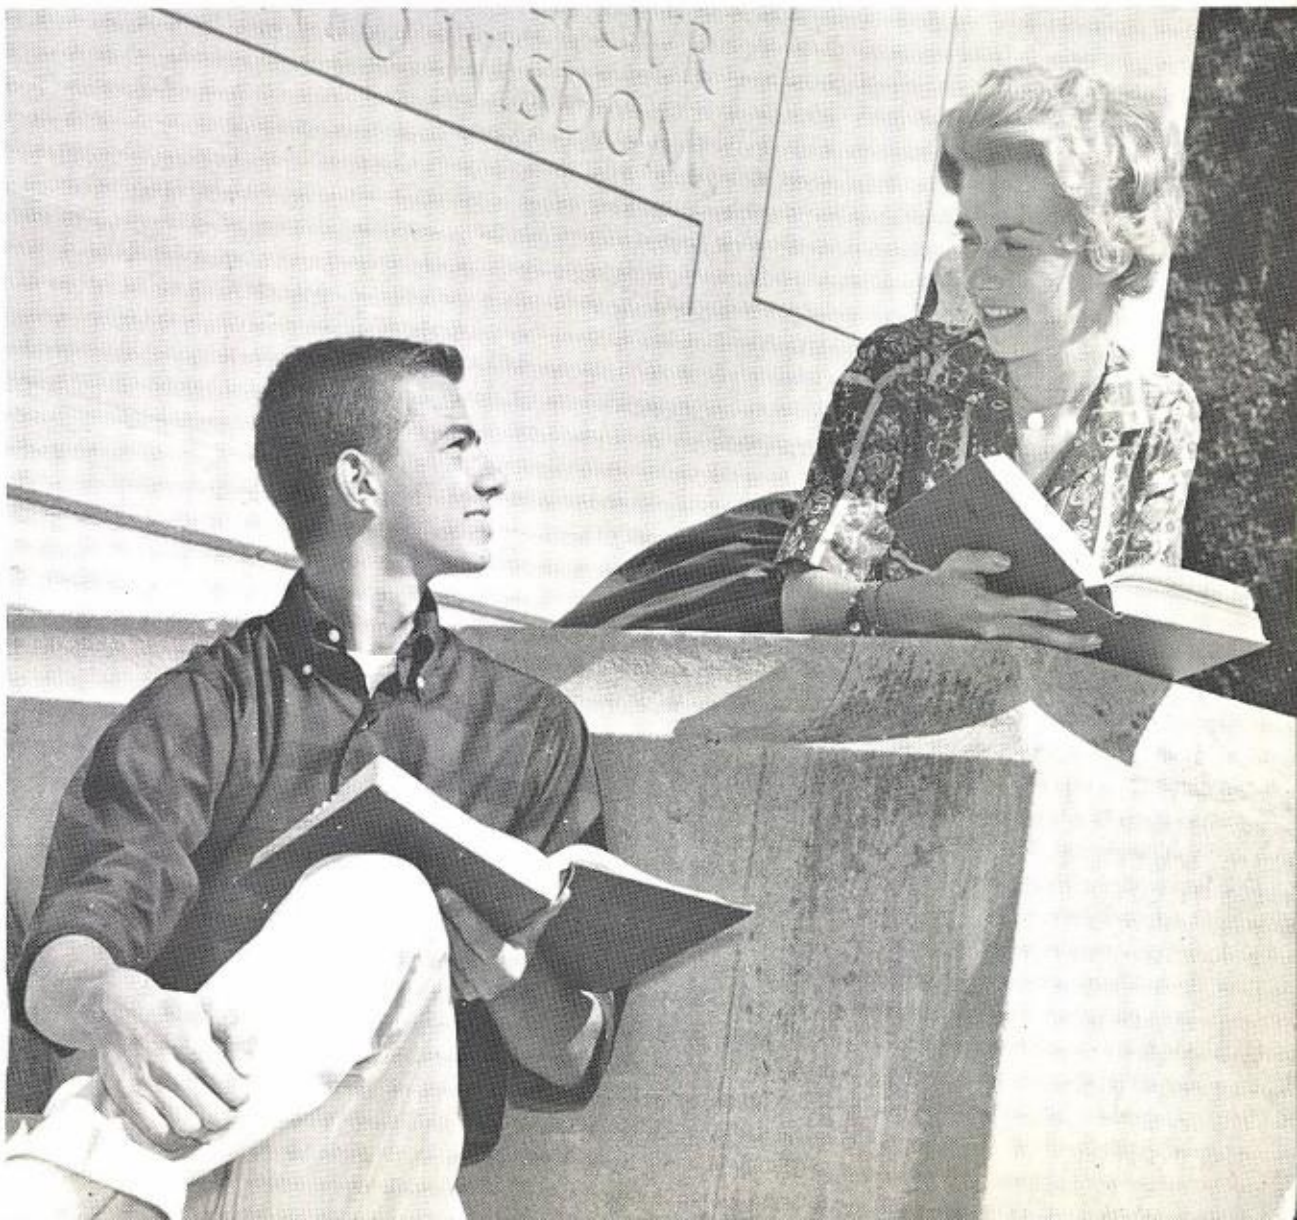
THE DOORS OF EDUCATION AT WITHROW STAND OPEN TO ANYONE WITH A WILL AND DETERMINATION TO ENRICH LIFE WITH KNOWLEDGE.

Arrayed in a panorama of beauty and splendor, the campus of Withrow High School fills the hearts of many Tigers with pride as they parade into Tigertown each morning. The colorful magic of each changing season brings to our memories the thrilling and exciting moments of by-gone days and a hope and inspiration for the future. The arching bridge and shaded valley seem to set the atmosphere just right for the students who wish to expand their knowledge by taking advantage of the many opportunities for learning established within the portals of Withrow. Inscribed on the tower are words of wisdom which symbolize the truth and honor upheld by the character of many Withrow students. Surely, as we leave our alma mater, we will carry away fond memories of "Withrow's beauty, Withrow's splendor."

CONCENTRATION IS FORGOTTEN DURING AN INTERVAL OF FRIENDLY CHATTER.

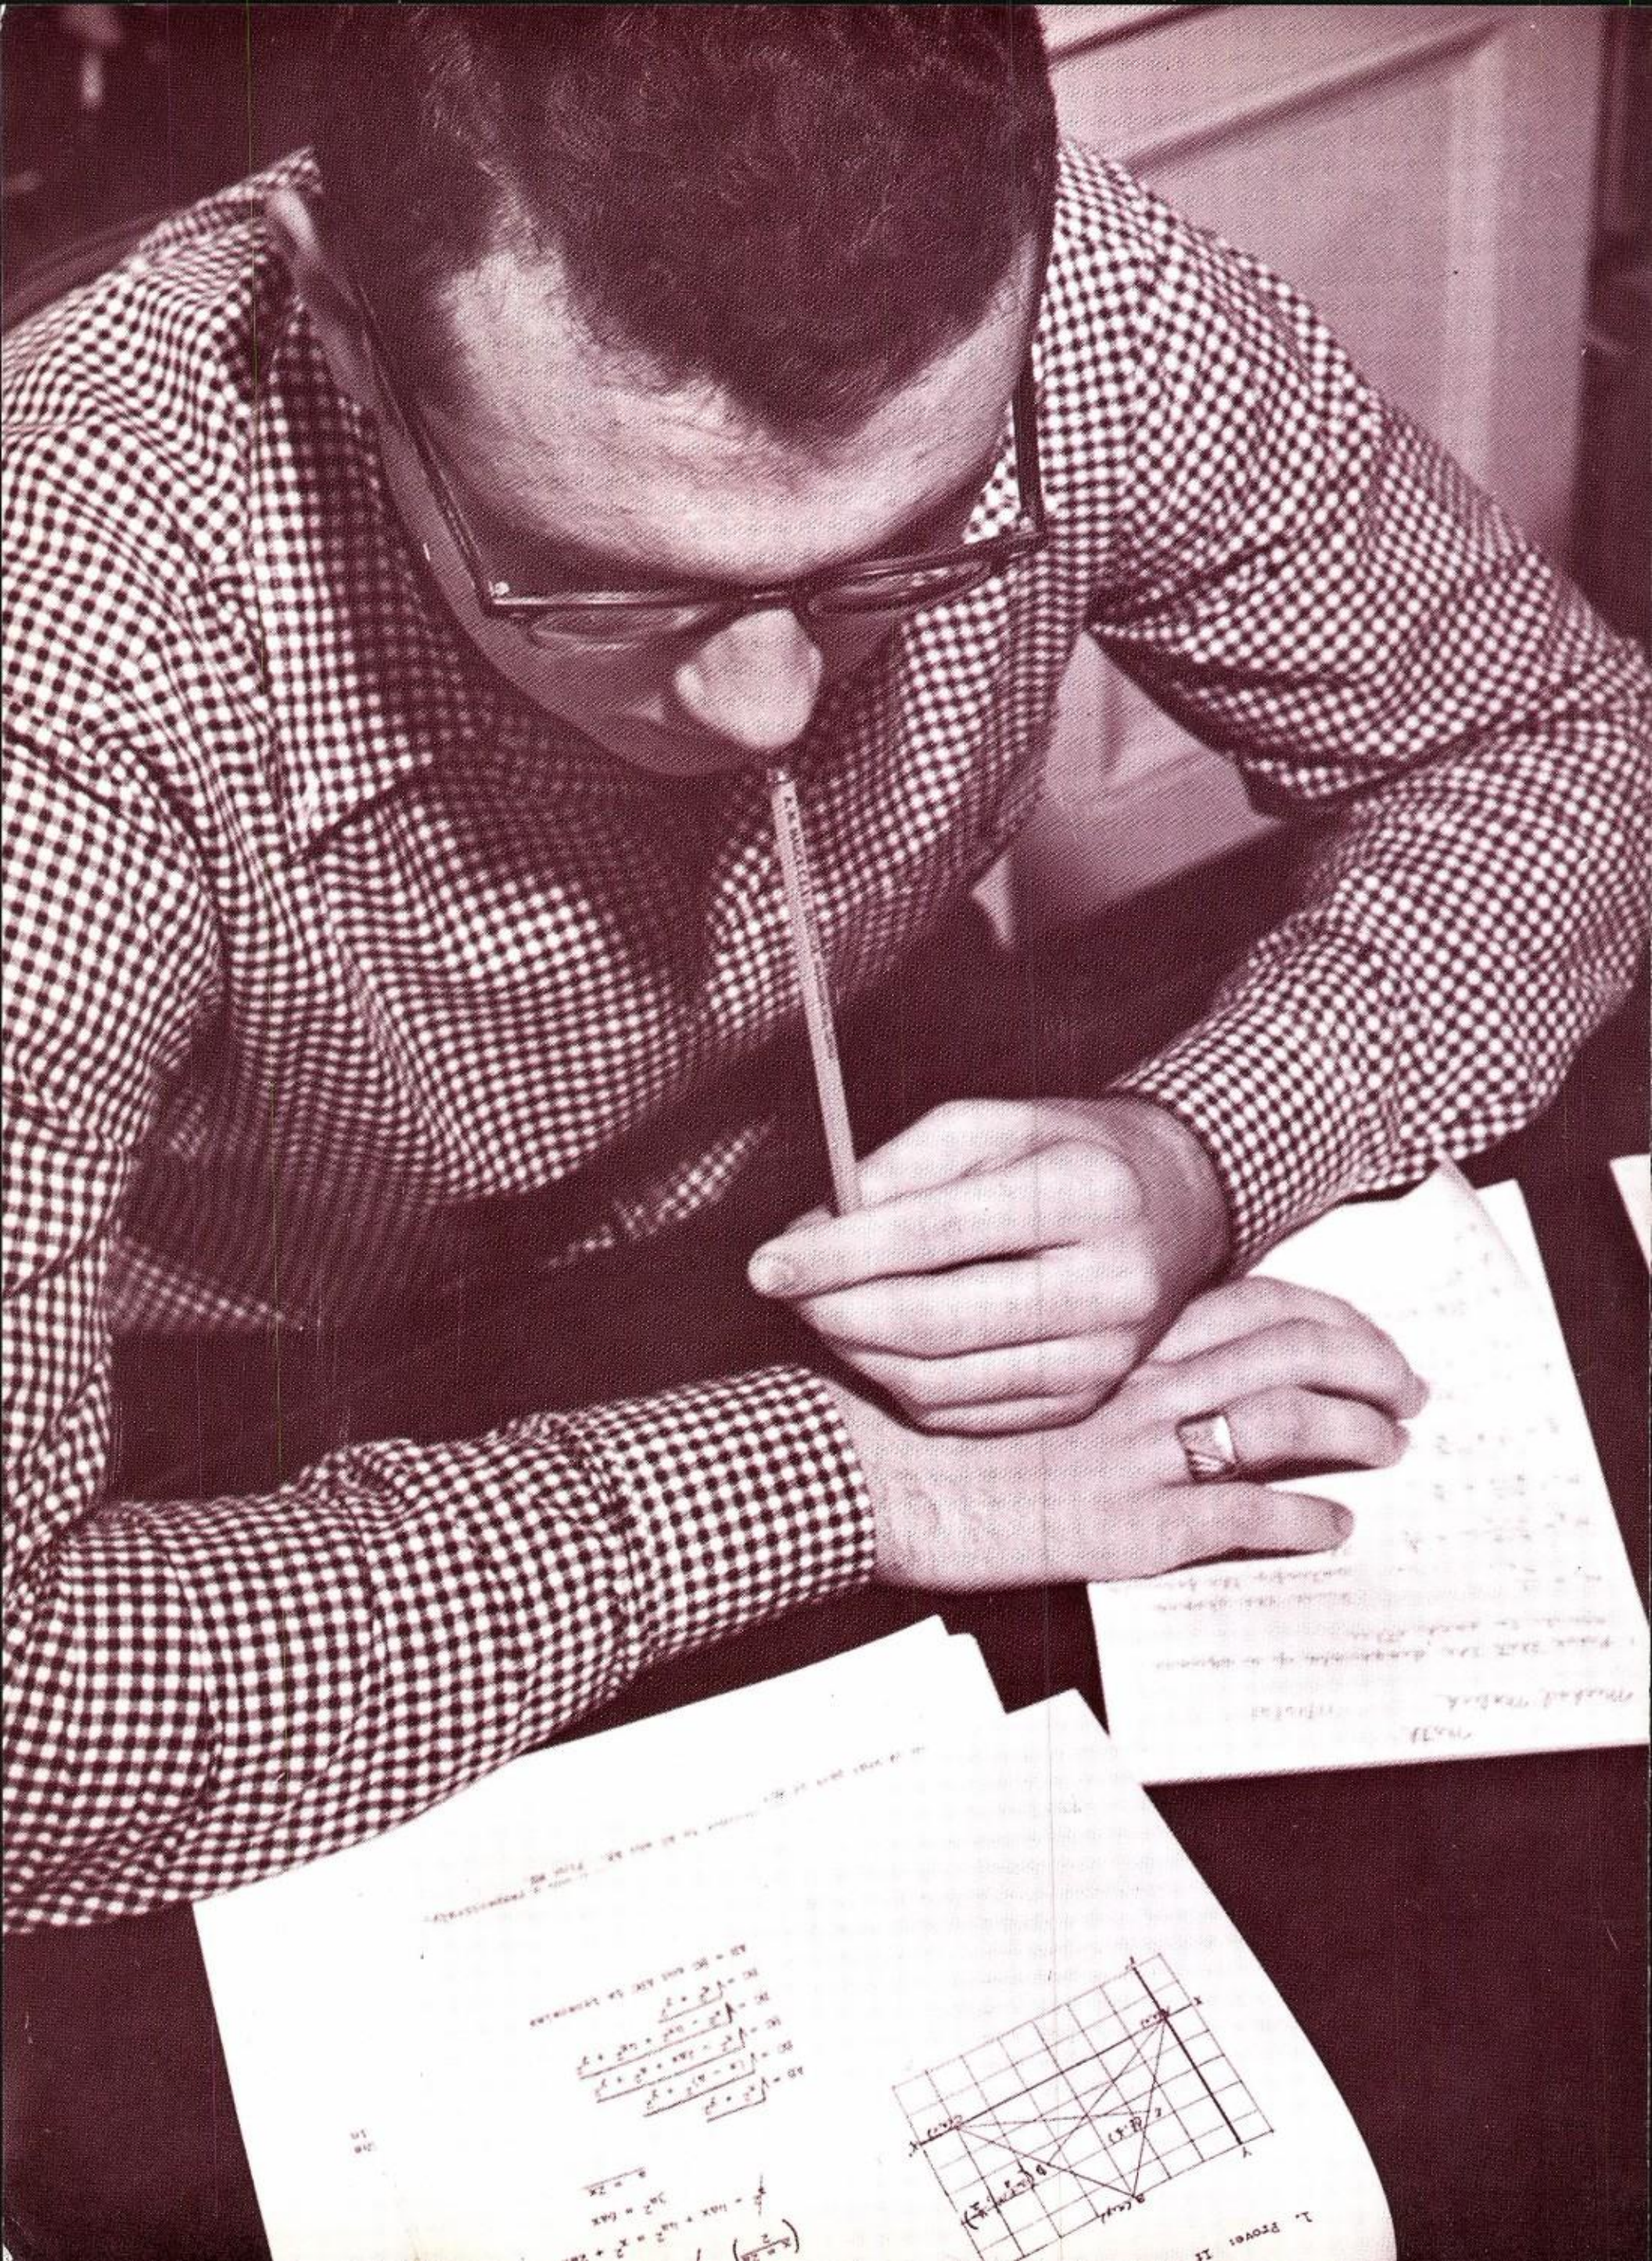


A GROUP OF TALENTED ART STUDENTS MAKES EARNEST ATTEMPTS TO CAPTURE SOME OF THE STATELY GRACE OF WITHROW'S FAMOUS BRIDGE.

OUR CAPABLE COOKS PREPARE LUNCH FOR MANY HUNGRY STUDENTS.

Life at Withrow involves a great many things besides scholastic aspects. Among these other activities are those pictured here—an art class on a balmy spring day spending a stimulating hour making sketches of the bridge, the lunchroom workers busily preparing another healthful and delicious meal, scenes of the mighty Tiger team getting ready for action, and members of the Tower News Staff diligently decorating the goal posts for an exciting home football game. Withrowites, in whatever activity they are engaged, may be detected by the friendliness, determination, and energy which they show. Bright smiles flash, as busy hands fly in the extracurricular activities.

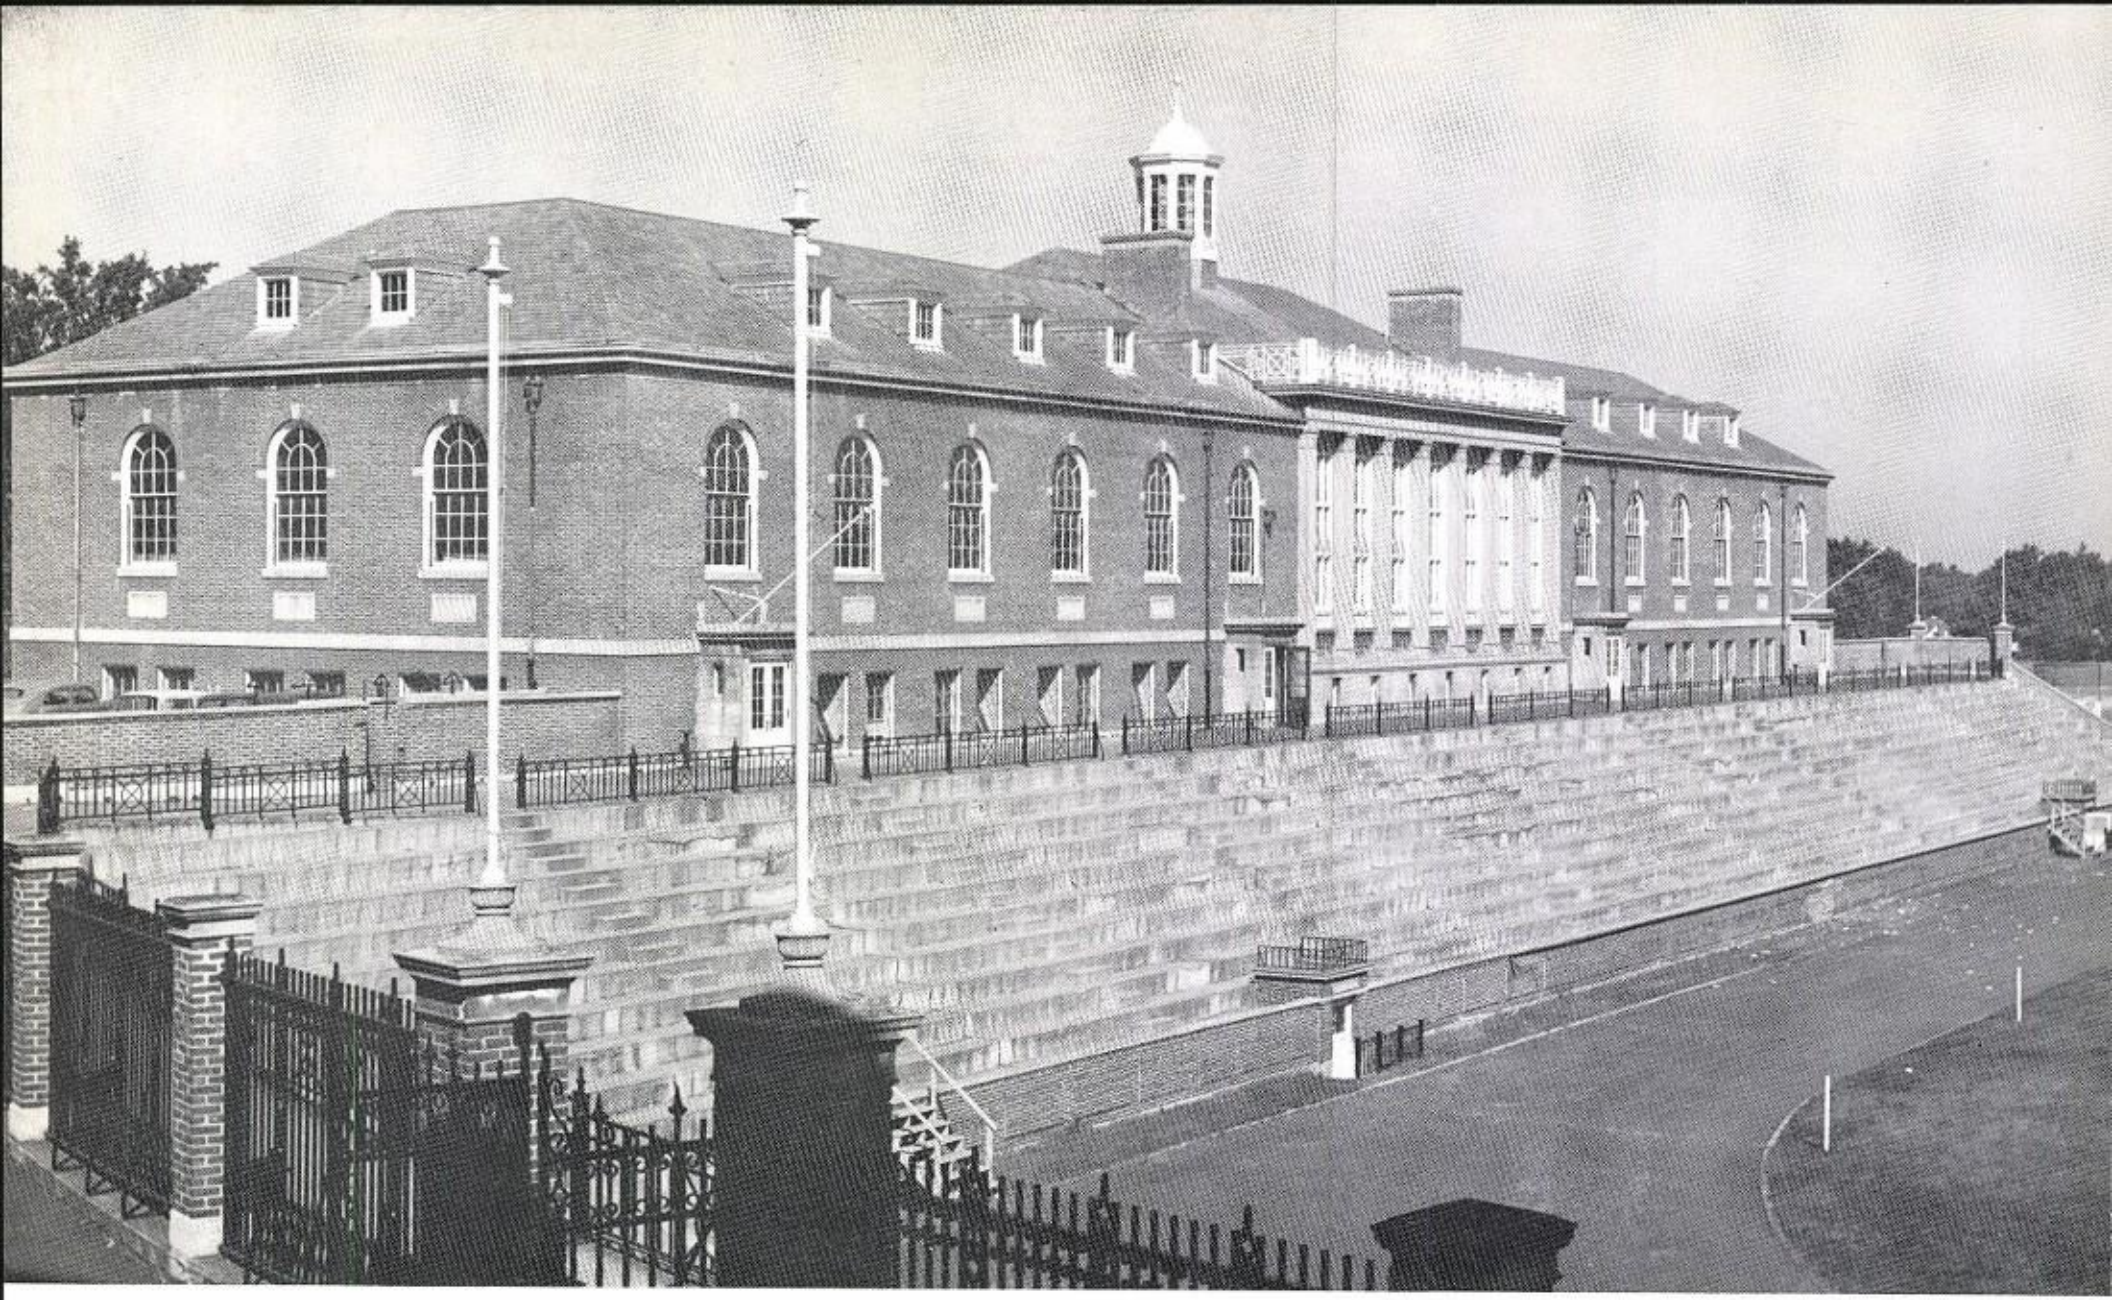
WITH ANXIETY, MIKE AWAITS HIS TURN TO PLAY WITH THE TIGERS.



IT WAS QUITE DIFFICULT TO CONCENTRATE WITH THE INVITING SPRING AIR BECKONING YOU FROM YOUR STUDIES TO THE OUT OF DOORS.

Withrow is situated on one of the most beautiful campuses in Ohio. All seasons saw matchless changes in the beauty of her landscaping, from the blooming of delicate pink magnolia blossoms in spring to the turning of the scarlet leaves on the majestic oak each fall. Winter's snow graced her with a blanket of fluffy softness glistening in the December sun. Thus, each season added its hues to the kaleidoscopic pattern of intricate lace in shadow and light. Studying was harder and concentration came slowly with all the pleasant distraction beckoning you outside the classroom. Everywhere the splendor of nature surrounded all—art students sketching the landscape, math pupils studying the geometrical designs of the trees and bushes on campus.

ON ICY MORNINGS STUDENTS ARE GRATEFUL FOR THE INVITING WARMTH OF CLASSROOMS.



DAY AFTER DAY THE STADIUM STANDS EMPTY, ANTICIPATING THE MOMENT WHEN IT WILL BE OCCUPIED BY CHEERING STUDENTS AND PLAYERS.

AT LAST IT IS QUICKLY FILLED WITH EAGER, EXCITED STUDENTS, WILDLY CHEERING AT ONE OF OUR POPULAR OUTDOOR PEP ASSEMBLIES.

Although the main reason for the existence of schools is to acquire an education, memories of past football seasons are sometimes more pleasant to the graduating seniors than those of the hours spent on their homework assignments. The cheerleaders in their brightly-colored uniforms, the voices raised in energetic cheers, the roar of the crowd as a player runs for a touchdown— all these are ingredients of that popular spectator sport. Dedicated fans endured the sweltering heat of summer afternoons and the freezing temperatures of late autumn nights to watch their team compete with rivals from other schools. Entertainment at halftime was provided by the music of the band and the clever routines of Withrow's champion majorettes. From the Pigskin Preview to the last game, loyal Tigers turned out to root their team on to victory.

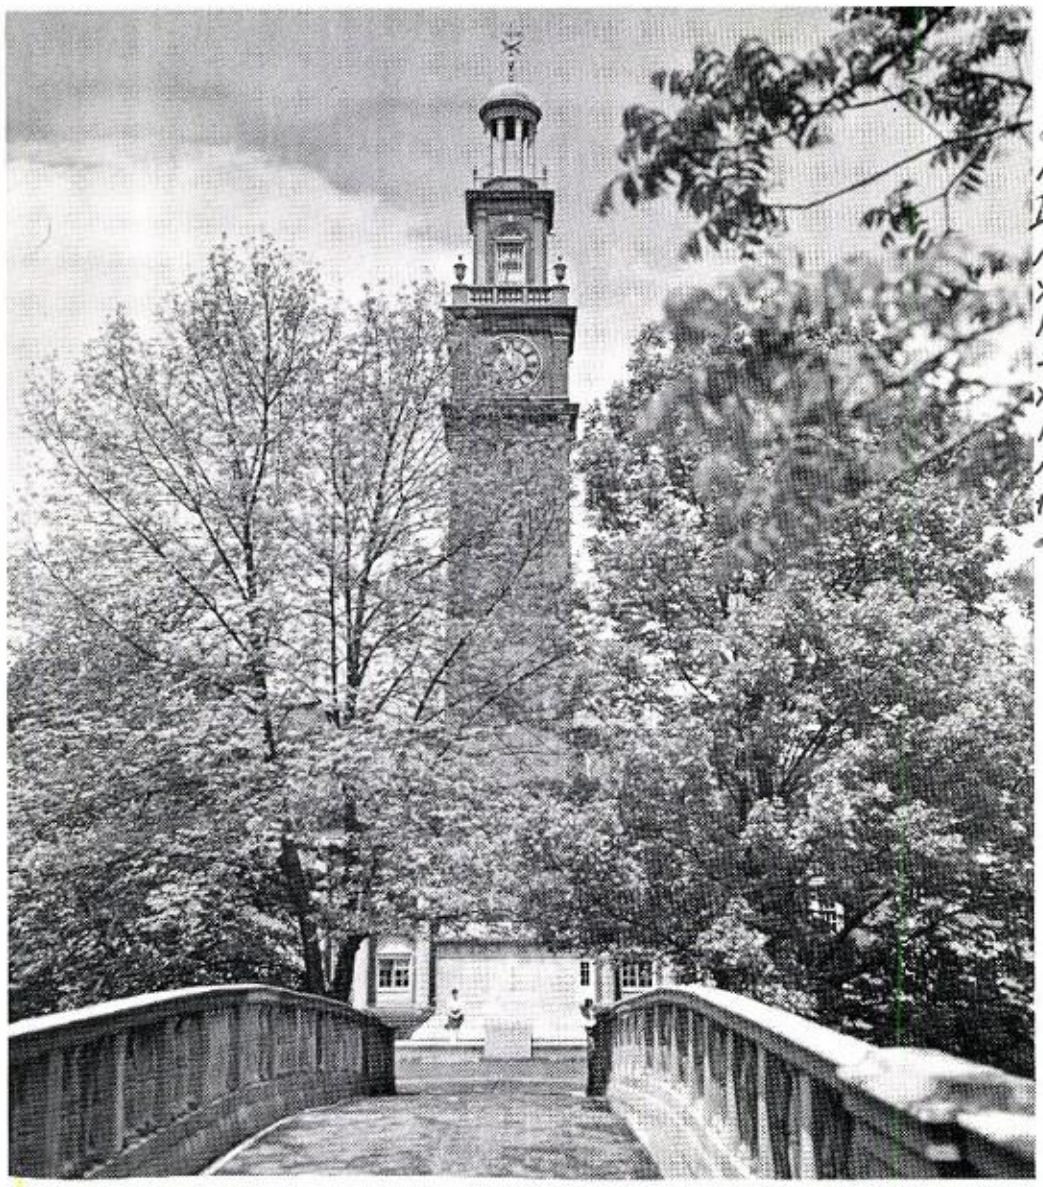
ENTHUSIASTIC WITHROWITES CHEER THE MIGHTY TIGER TEAM ON TO ANOTHER VICTORY.

THESE PROUD BEAUTIES RODE IN THE FAMOUS PARADE OF PIGSKIN PREVIEW AS QUEENS—EACH A PRESIDENT OF GAA AT HER OWN SCHOOL.

ATTEMPTS IN SKETCHING CORRECT PHYSICAL PROPORTIONS AID STUDENTS WHEN THEY LATER LEARN TO CAPTURE THE BEAUTY OF WITHROW.

IDENTIFICATION TAGS HELP STUDENTS ENJOY THEIR CAMPUS.

Within Withrow's corridors and also on her campus, students are offered varied opportunities to grow in appreciation of both beauty and knowledge. In an art class, aspiring artists develop their talents under the leadership of their more experienced teachers; while in another part of the building, an attentive English student begins to understand why he is made to read Shakespeare. Outside Tigertown, besides being able to enjoy their school's scenic campus as always, there was something new for Withrowites. They were able to take a course in botany by strolling about the grounds, reading the new name plates of different trees.



THE TOWER GREETS PUPILS EACH MORNING, HEARTENING THEM FOR THE DAY.

CROSSING THE BRIDGE EACH DAY, MANY STUDENTS FIND A NEW WORLD OPENED TO THEM, ONE OF KNOWLEDGE AND OF ENDLESS OPPORTUNITY.

WITHIN SEVERAL HOURS THE ANNUAL STAFF TRANSFORMED THE GYM INTO A FESTIVE BALLROOM FOR THE 1961 ANNUAL HOMECOMING DANCE.

Many hours of laborious preparation went into making Withrow's school dances a fitting climax to the week's work. Crepe paper, glitter, sequins, and balloons lay in a jumbled heap on the gym floor. Busy little Tigers scurried to and fro picking up this, dropping that. A miraculous transformation took place—within hours the dreary gymnasium, became a Japanese garden for a "Rickshaw Sway," a football stadium for a "Gridiron Gallavant," and even a carnival for our "Tigertown Twirl." Not all of the dances were completely inside. "Homecoming" traditionally began with a parade of floats carrying the candidates for king and queen around the track before the start of our Homecoming game. Deluges of rain soaked the floats and stopped the parade, but this didn't dampen the spirits of enthusiastic W i t h r o w i t e s who flocked back to school for the dance that evening.

WITHROW TALENT ADDED A PLEASANT BREAK TO THE ACTIVITIES OF THE HOME DANCES.

Every parade must have its own leaders, and the Tiger Parade was no exception. Leading the procession to the beat of responsibility, integrity, and a friendly smile for everyone was our principal, Mr. Ayer. The secretaries and librarians were right in step, as they busily typed and filed away or helped a student find the references he needed. Harmony was kept by the counselors as they cheerfully gave helpful vocational or personal guidance. The largest and most vital part of the cavalcade was composed of the teachers, who, through their own experience and knowledge, opened the doors to broader horizons of a more interesting world for their students. When they lay down their batons and cymbals at the end of a typical school day, the faculty do not, contrary to popular opinion, fade away into the twilight. They each have separate worlds of their own, apart from their traditional duties at Tigertown. In their midst are gardeners, culinary geniuses, avid sports car fans, and ordinary mothers and fathers, rushing to be joined with their families at the end of a hard day's work. Yes, our faculty are educated and dedicated, but also quite normal people leading quite normal lives.

Administration

MR. ANDERSON OWENS

Tigertown would not be complete without a capable administrative body. Our junior high pupils were under the able leadership of Mr. McElhaney who saw to it that bewildered and confused students quickly became enjoyably acquainted with their new surroundings. Even teachers had problems. Mr. Buxton was always there to lend a hand in straightening out any complications which arose; also, under his guidance were the pupils in the main building. Senior high assistant principal, Mr. Owens, served in various capacities. Along with the duties and responsibilities of keeping disciplinary and attendance records in the senior high, he served well as an adviser to the senior class and Sigma Gamma. Our beloved principal, Mr. Joseph C. Ayer, assumed the duties of executive of our town with a quietly pleasant attitude. In this, his second year as head of Withrow, Mr. Ayer's actions substantiated the beliefs of community leaders in his ability properly and adequately to govern Withrow High School. On his, as well as on all of the assistant principals' shoulders rested the reputation of our school. From morning till night these men worked side by side harmoniously intertwining the parade of activities and duties necessary to run a school as wonderfully huge and complex as ours. To them we owe gratitude and a pledge to work to the best of our abilities toward keeping Withrow in its honored place. To you Sirs: Mr. Joseph C. Ayer, Mr. Anderson Owens, Mr. Harold Buxton, and Mr. William McElhaney we pay tribute for the efficient work you have done, here in Tigertown.

Counselors

Always busy, but still having time for private counseling, always efficient though there are conferences, college interviews, and miscellaneous affairs to manage, the counselors of Withrow High School are due much respect and admiration. Under their capable guidance each student is assured the help he needs in determining his future plans. If you need an early excuse, a schedule change or help in solving personal problems, our counselors are there to aid you. Through the efforts of their patient counseling they brought about a more friendly relationship between faculty and students. Their main interest is YOU and their goal is to help develop you, our young Americans, to becoming more useful and respectful first class citizens.

MISS ELIZABETH LEMMON

MR. ROBERT BLAKE

MISS LULA B. MURPHY

MR. COLIN YACKS

These are the hard-working, friendly secretaries at Withrow. Through their ability and dependability they keep Tigertown on the go, by giving our summonses, keeping records, typing schedules, checking attendance and being the right hand to the executive branch. They are essential to maintain a normal running management, and to help out with any problem that might come up.

As an adviser Mr. Colin Yacks was kept occupied much of the time. Mr. Yacks holds the position of Director of Student Activities. His varied duties included keeping the halls clear between classes through our school's Monitor System, sponsored by Student Council. Helping with the boys' social clubs was another job. As an attendance teacher he was busy in the mornings.

Few teachers receive the admiration that sets off Mr. G. Smith. "Smitty" brought fame to Tigertown when as a teacher he started the second marching band in the district. How many schools can boast of a music department like Withrow's and a nationally known Minstrels? Due to this man's efforts, the Minstrels is presented each year. Whether working out a precise band formation or battling the Board of Education for the sake of a Minstrel he kept his dignity. The Shrine Circus and opening day for the "Reds" keep Smitty's Band busy. The Carthage Fair can only be complete if this Withrow teacher's band performs at the grandstand.

With her slightly detectable New England accent, Miss Helen Taylor explained metaphor to her English students with the quote "The moon in the sky is a custard pie . . ." As a teacher of the academic and college preparatory and advanced English classes, she inspired many students and instilled in them a better knowledge of the language and its people. This was accomplished by her easily understood explanations of grammar usage and her appreciation of good literature, which inspired interest in others. Placing emphasis on striving for perfection, she instilled good study habits in her pupils. This very same interest was shown by the other members of the English Department, which Miss V. O. Beck heads.

As the art adviser to the '62 Annual Mr. Mueller has brought some new and colorful ideas to this year's book. He is also the sponsor of the successful Senior High Art Club. Mr. Mueller has had two one-man shows of his paintings. To further prove his artistic abilities he also did the portrait of Mr. Cadwallader, which hangs proudly in the main hall, a gift of last year's senior class. Viewing the scenic landscapes of Europe this past summer, Mr. Mueller derived inspirations for yet unpainted pictures. Besides Mr. Mueller, we are proud to have in the Art Department such talented teachers as Miss Ilo Stose, Mrs. Anne Schiffer, Mr. Herbert Shirmer, and Mr. Michael Hlad. These kind and helpful teachers are inspiring to students who wish to enter the field of art. We see many examples of the handiwork of these students in the Christmas Concert posters and the art work done for our Minstrels. Art is an important part of the cultural life here and the teachers deserve recognition.

For each boy there is a feeling of satisfaction and pride after the completion of a lamp, table, or some other metal or wood-working project made by his own hands. Printing and mechanical drawing are also included in this course. Under the capable guidance of Withrow's industrial arts teachers, a number of our boys have ranked high in the competitive fields of electrical inventions. Their creative and orginal projects were entered in the Ohio Industrial Arts Association, at Columbus, the Ohio State Fair, and the National Industrial Arts Fair. When Mr. Templin, a most respected and outstanding industrial arts teacher, left, it was a great loss to all.

Withrow may well be proud of its outstanding science and home economics departments. In home ec. 7th and 8th grade girls learn the fundamentals of cooking and sewing while the senior high girls are instructed in the making of clothes and home planning by Mrs. Noonan. The science department covers general science, biology, physics, and chemistry. Walking down the hall one can sometimes detect the odor of burning sulphur and see red-faced students emerging from smoke-filled labs. Instructors like Mr. Hirt, Mr. Pitcher, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Gallagher, to name a few, enjoy teaching.

Arithmetic is the building block of all sciences. Since there is an increasing demand for mathematicians in our day and age, the pressure falls more heavily on teachers of this department. If a student does not learn early that two and two are four, he is lost then with the basic essentials of physics and chemistry. Miss Eleanor Graham, along with the other members of the math department, has made general math, algebra, and plane geometry interesting for all her students. Reasoning and understanding are developed as well as the knowledge of applying numbers.

As a teacher of typing and consumer education, Mr. Bryant has gained many loyal friends as well as recognition as a dedicated teacher. He serves as an example of the efficient and competent business teachers at Withrow. Helping to provide the active worlds of today and tomorrow with qualified typist and educated merchandisers and consumers, Mr. Bryant also coaches the junior high basketball team. His enthusiasm for his work, combined with school spirit for our athletic teams makes his classes most interesting. FACULTY

The gym department, in the capable hands of Mrs. Lally, Mrs. Bertram, Miss Leslie, and Miss Robinson, saw to it that the tigresses' physical development was not overlooked in the rush for acquiring knowledge. Those two-and-a half periods a week were looked forward to by all the girls as a welcome break in the grind of a busy day—a chance to enjoy the companionship of others in some invigorating sport. For those whose interests leaned strongly towards two certain activities, Dance Club and Dolphin Club were held after school hours. The real sports lovers who took part in the events of GAA were rewarded with health-building exercise, lasting friendships, growth of character from learning how to work as a team with others and to practice good sportsmanship, and mainly, just plain fun.

Withrow may well be proud of the members of its competent Social Studies Department. Mr. Wilkinson, a teacher of world history, combines an informal atmosphere along with regular class discussion to make his course as interesting and enjoyable as possible. History is composed of dates, places, and people and is an essential course for all well informed Americans. Mr. Wilkinson is one of the social studies faculty group who are well informed individuals and efficient capable teachers. Forgetting their troubles, responsibilities, and the chore of grading test papers, the faculty of Withrow High School met for a few hours of complete relaxation and fun. This annual gathering is known as Faculty Playday. On this day our beloved faculty show their skill at sports and the truth of an old saying "You're as young as you feel." There were numerous games in which to participate, such as volleyball, softball, swimming, tennis, and badminton. For the more conservative or less athletic individual there were shuffleboard, ping-pong and bridge. Each year the faculty awaits this memorable day.

I hope you're not too mad at me. The opportunity was there and I had to take advantage of it.

Remember the night we went to the skating party. You just would not leave Cobb alone, would you? I won't hold that against you because we'll always be friends. I'm going to try to send Stewart Thomas for Grace and Allyson to remember just Kimberly Jones. Hope you like them. Remember the good times

The cavalcade of fun and learning began for most of the Class of 1962 in either the seventh, ninth or tenth grades. The graduates of '62 were the first to boast of having a portion to graduate classified as College Preparatory students but they were not the first to regret leaving their Alma Mater, where they spent many years in play and also in work. Having that first date, attending the very first formal, and finally receiving a driver's license were all experiences that were a part of the Withrow Parade. As their years progressed, they eventually found themselves surprisingly—seniors, seniors who were looked up to by the entire student body, but who actually had never experienced "Senior-itis" and felt the same as they had in the beginning of the parade. But with clubs and activities to lead, royalty dances over which to reign, the last football game at which to cheer, and Minstrel gardenias to press, each senior felt a strongly glowing inner warmth that had been kindling for many years. They now have completed some of the best years of their lives; and with the training each has received, they will be able to build a better future for themselves and their country.

P.S. I hope you'll get over your madness. It was really all in fun. Take care of Withrow for me "Sis"

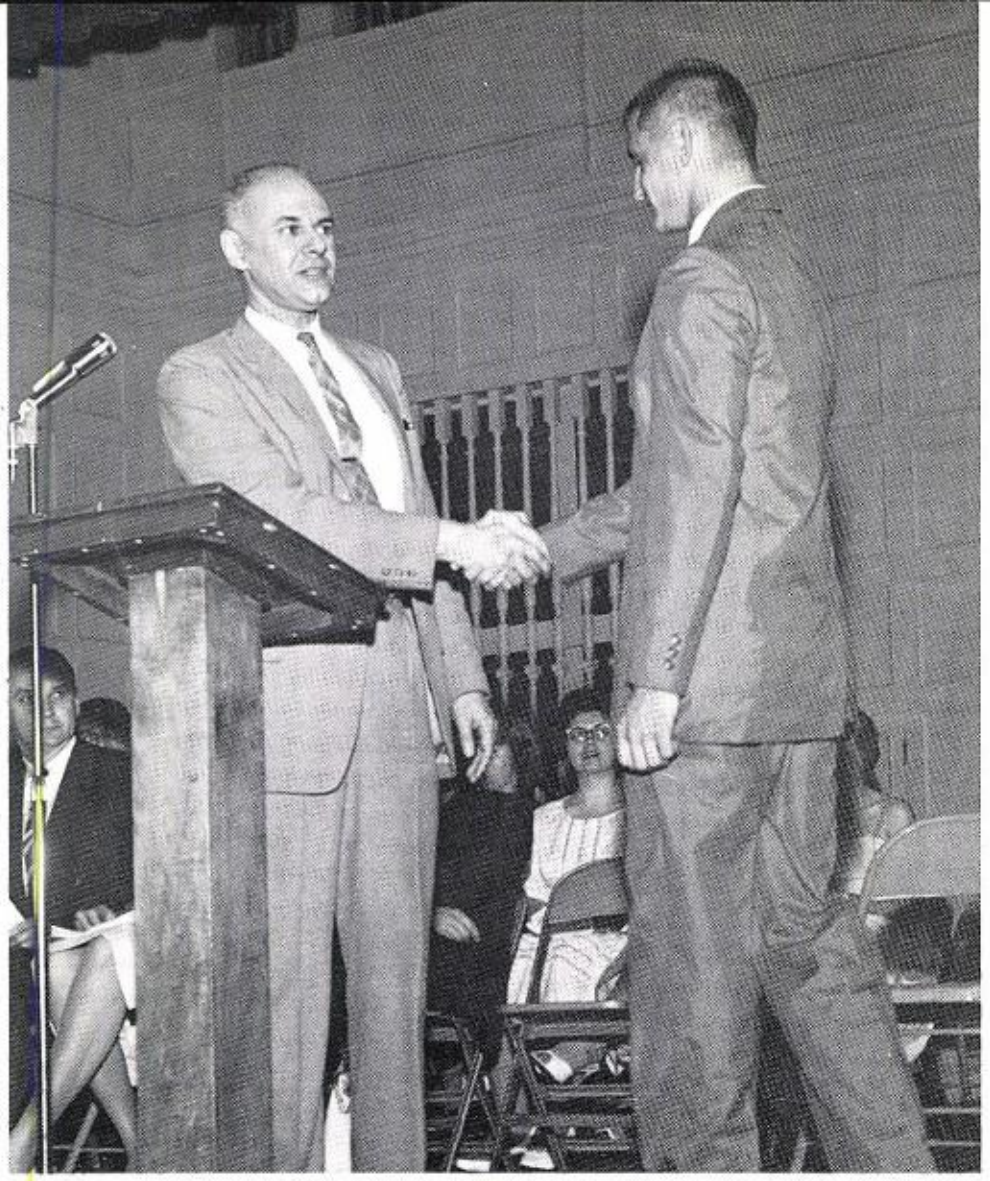
AWARDS DAY

AS THE "HONOR GRADS" WATCH, A SCHOLARSHIP IS AWARDED TO A DESERVING STUDENT.

Six long years of night work, six long years of cramming for tests—was it worth it? Walking the track clad in our prettiest dresses and most handsome suits, we see anxious underclassmen, some we know as friends, others as faces in the crowd. Next we gaze upon parents; how proud they must seem seeing their children getting the recognition for which they worked so long! Finally there are companions who shared the many years with us. Now we are seated, waiting to see who will get the next award. Ah, good! a girl who was in my homeroom during the eighth grade gets a scholarship. I remember how hard she used to study in those few precious moments before the first bell. Next are the Sigs and Duxs; remember how we waited hoping we could be one of the twelve? Now the ceremony is coming to an end and we see that it was not "six long years," but only a brief and happy period of our lives.



WITH AN AWARD GO HONOR, A SENSE OF ACHIEVEMENT AND GREAT PRIDE.

After a long hard winter of work and toil, Withrow's seniors look forward to one of the most heart-warming and exciting days of the year. On this day, we feel a sad gaiety as the end of our life at Withrow approaches. We glance back at the golden memories of the Senior Prom, the school dances, and all the fun-filled hours spent with our classmates. The band soon brings us out of this daze of reminiscence and to attention as it begins the morning's activities with the national anthem. Following this introduction, students who, by determination, have attained their goals of reaching high scholastic records, are called to the front as the top ten percent of their class. Many of these seniors and juniors are then presented with scholarships and honor awards. Climaxing the program is the calling of the DUXS and the SIGS.

TED BARRETT

Managing the bookstore kept this active Sig busy. His radiant personality helped Ted acquire many offices in school clubs. Being president of Explorers Club, secretary of Chess Club, and treasurer of Sigma Gamma substantiate this point. After school he worked at the Eastern Hills Laboratory, a point which in no way interfered with his becoming the recipient of the Harvard Book and achieving the highest scholastic honor—Cum Laude. Advanced physics and chemistry were the planning field for Ted's future. The University of Cincinnati or the Air Force Academy will unlock the door for his career in electronic engineering.

The daughter of a Methodist minister, "Scottie" was often seen wielding a pen as secretary of Quill and Scroll and corresponding secretary of Scribblers. DIANA BLACKSCHLEGER

SENIORS

Diana Blackschleger, known for her bright blue eyes and blonde hair, busied her senior year with memberships in Dux Femina, Dance Club, Scribblers, Literary Club, and Drill Team. The girls of Tally-Ho regarded Diana reliable enough to become their president, as did the members of French Club. Even though she had so many activities she always found time to give a warm smile to all who passed by. Diana's sincerity and willingness to be of any assistance possible, made her popular with everyone. Those numerous students who have been associated with Diana in any way will think of this out-going senior often in years to come.

SENIORS

When he was tapped for Cum Laude last fall, the boy sitting next to him smiled, and said, "A great guy with brains." And Geoff Benedict is just that. "A great guy," respected by classmates and well thought of by teachers. This popularity was substantiated by the fact that he was chosen vice president of Sigma Gamma and president of History Club. He did both jobs well, and carried a heavy load of advanced subjects. Making most of his intelligence and diligence, Geoff added the much-appreciated element of humor. Wherever he was you were certain to find smiles and laughter, and the great sincerity characteristic of this Sig.

A deserving student chosen as a member of Sigma Gamma on the basis of his academic achievement and personality is Barry Canter. Because of his clever wit he played a large part in making the Minstrel Skits something to which everyone looked forward. As president of Thalian Barry saw to it that Withrow presented two outstanding plays this year. Playing in the percussion section of the band added to his list of activities. Besides having such a busy schedule he took Advanced English and managed to attain high grades. Barry's consideration of others will keep him in the minds of fellow classmates for many years.

PAT CROWLEY

Always smiling and always gay—these phrases aptly apply to Pat Crowley. Her smile and friendliness made her welcomed anywhere. Gaiety is only one of Pat's assets. Her talent was revealed in her Minstrel dance solo and she kicked with the Pony chorus during show season. Pat ably handled the Student Council treasury this year, as well as serving as assistant art editor of the Annual and as Dolphin Club's vice-president. Busy as she was, this little Dux held high scholastic standards which earned the respect of her friends and teachers. Vivaciousness and vitality go together to make this tigress one well-known to all Withrowites.

KAY DIEFENBACH

Dux Femina's treasurer, Kay Diefenbach, always shared enthusiastically in whatever job needed to be done. To her classmates Kay showed traits of both sincerity and integrity. Tally-Ho claimed her as corresponding secretary—a job for which she was well suited. At times, when not showing her athletic ability in GAA's individual sports, Kay was busy working on both advanced placement math and chemistry. Ranking high in class standing, she will be remembered for brains and a genuinely unselfish interest in others. Throughout Tigertown Kay's warm smile preceded her work as she went about making this the best place for all.

Sigma Gamma's Tom Frame brought the gavel down and called the Withrow High Student Council meeting to order. The old adage of good things coming in small packages could never be truer, for Tom was packed with an abundance of energy. Without any fears, he skillfully tackled and successfully achieved the responsibilities of the President of Student Council. Tom, participating in Beta-Gamma Hi-Y and Latin Club, still managed to squeeze in time for an active membership in Kappa Tau Kappa. Being able to maintain a high scholastic average all through school, he used his "front yard league" as a change of pace and for real relaxation.

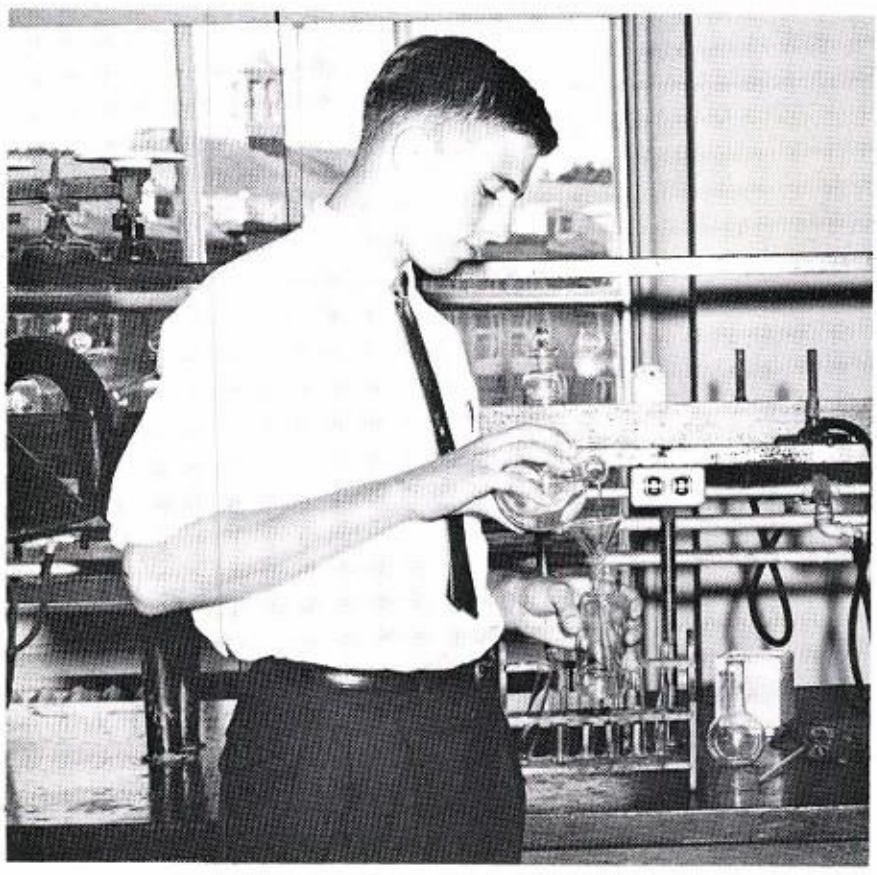
HORACE HEFFNER



Active in varsity football and track, school spirited Horace Heffner adds congeniality and wit to his various traits. Sigma Gamma called him to its ranks for his fine athletic and scholastic records. A member of Tiger Club, Horace showed outstanding ability in using brawn while still carrying difficult PSSC Physics, Advanced Math, and Advanced Chemistry. As an outstanding student, he added much to general discussions and his humorous comments were appreciated. When carrying a test tube or a pigskin, Horace was quite at home. In future years he will be an example of scholastic aptitude and athletics combined.

SENIORS

Popular is the word for Barbara Gwinner. This busy senior had many activities at Withrow. As president of GAA, she was very well qualified for the job which occupied much of her time. Barb was an active member of GAA; after school she participated in sports and the Dolphin Club. This charming and vivacious girl was Withrow's queen for the Pigskin Preview this year. As Altruist's Corresponding Secretary she dependably and faithfully carried out her duties. Being a member of Dux Femina proved her qualities in leadership. "BJ's" interest in and love for other people helped her to decide to work toward being a physical therapist.

SENIORS MARCH AROUND THE TRACK AS PART OF THE CEREMONY WHICH CLIMAXES HAPPY YEARS IN SEARCH OF KNOWLEDGE.

GRADUATION

INSPIRATION AND ASSURANCE ARE GIVEN IN A FAREWELL ADDRESS TO THE SENIORS.

The familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" flow over the field as the column of seniors slowly parades around the track. Their solemn faces reflect mixed emotions. Sorrow for the passing of happy high school days, memories of those wonderful years, and anticipation and hope for the time to come fill their minds. Reflecting on the past few years, each senior remembers football games and dances, homework and exams, fun and work. As they look ahead, they feel anticipation and a little bit of anxiety. From these familiar halls their paths lead in many directions —some will go on to college; others will get jobs—but each one feels pride and hope as he holds his own diploma. As the speakers finish and graduation draws to a close, hats are gaily tossed into the air. No longer seniors, they cross the famous bridge for the last time.

Once more this time has come, and the old must give way to the new. Joyous, yet sorrowful, seniors pay a final tribute to beloved Withrow High. While sedately marching 'round the track their thoughts wander back over countless memories tucked away in scrapbooks and in hearts. Wielded gavels, reigning kings and queens, bestowed honors, duly received recognition—all have come and gone. Tomorrow holds the future brightly lighted and awaiting e a g e r l y anticipating hands. Yet, somehow, it is with regret that these seniors leave our hallowed halls. The invocation and the salute to the flag bring them back through the maze of yesterday's memories and into the reality of today. Then all too soon the ceremony h a s ended. Rushing friends congratulate those newly graduated. A trickling tear to be brushed away—a memory so dear.

GRADUATES MAKE HECTIC PREPARATIONS IN FRONT OF THE TOWER.

COMMENCEMENT BRINGS FAREWELLS AND EXPECTATIONS, SMILES AND SADNESS, RELIEF AND REGRET, AND PRIDE IN A PLEDGE TO WITHROW.

BONNIE HEIMANN

A shrill whistle, a roar of drums, and here is the procession leader, Head Majorette Bonnie Heimann. Not only did this cute little miss lead Tigertown's band, but she was also one of the leaders in everything at Withrow. Altruist, GAA, and Minstrels could vouch for her willingness to work and her success in every attempt she made. The Senior Class and Dux knew her to add helping suggestions and to carry out responsibilities. This merry yet modest gal was Homecoming Queen—another honor that Bon will grow to cherish. It is very seldom that a school can be justified in saying "Thanks"—Withrow is proud to do so for Bon.

Studious and hard-working, Marshall Lykins earned his coveted membership in Cum Laude by maintaining an A average. High grades in advanced math and chemistry were only two of his accomplishments in the academic field. When he was not studying diligently, History Club, Chess Club, and Gens Togata occupied his time. His classmates will remember him for his ability to take the lead in class discussions. Marshall's post-graduation plans include the study of some area of math at an eastern college. Here is a student who has helped greatly to uphold the high standards of scholastic achievement which Withrow has long had.

PROM PARADE

May 29, the night of the dance of dances, finally arrived. After many months of preparations and anticipations, the grand finale to the years spent at Tigertown had come. This final production had to be one that all the members of the cast would never forget. The scene of the Senior Prom for 1962 was the Topper Club. The crew in charge of the directions was Sigma Gamma. The orchestration was furnished by Smittie's Band. The climax of the extravaganza was the presentation of the star, Queen Jean Anderson.

I attended the Sr. Prom with Charles Orr

SENIOR PROM QUEEN: MISS JEAN ANDERSON.

Cruising along at a snail's pace to Tiger football games was a wild '52 Hudson known as "The Insect," piloted by popular Sig, Terry Metzler. "Metz," as he is called by his friends, was an active person at Withrow serving KTK as their recording secretary and Beta Gamma Hi-Y as vice president. He also participated in Advanced Placement courses and feels more emphasis should be placed on scholastic achievement. Terry was a fine promoter of everything going on throughout Tigertown and spent much time getting people to sports events and dances. Happy in manner, serious in work, Terry Metzler is a credit to Withrow.

KAREN KENDALL

Another outstanding member of the Tigertown Parade is friendly, witty Karen Kendall. Her sincerity and tact led her classmates to elect her president of Altruist and Gens Togata. "Woody" is easily recognized by her bright, cheerful smile, her dark, expressive eyes, and her energetic manner. Her talents are many and varied. She is a strong but thoughtful leader, a responsible, efficient worker, and an able student. Other abilities of this busy senior are evident in the fact that she was active in Dance Club, Senior Choir, and Dux. Withrowites will always remember this great gal for her many contributions to Tigertown.

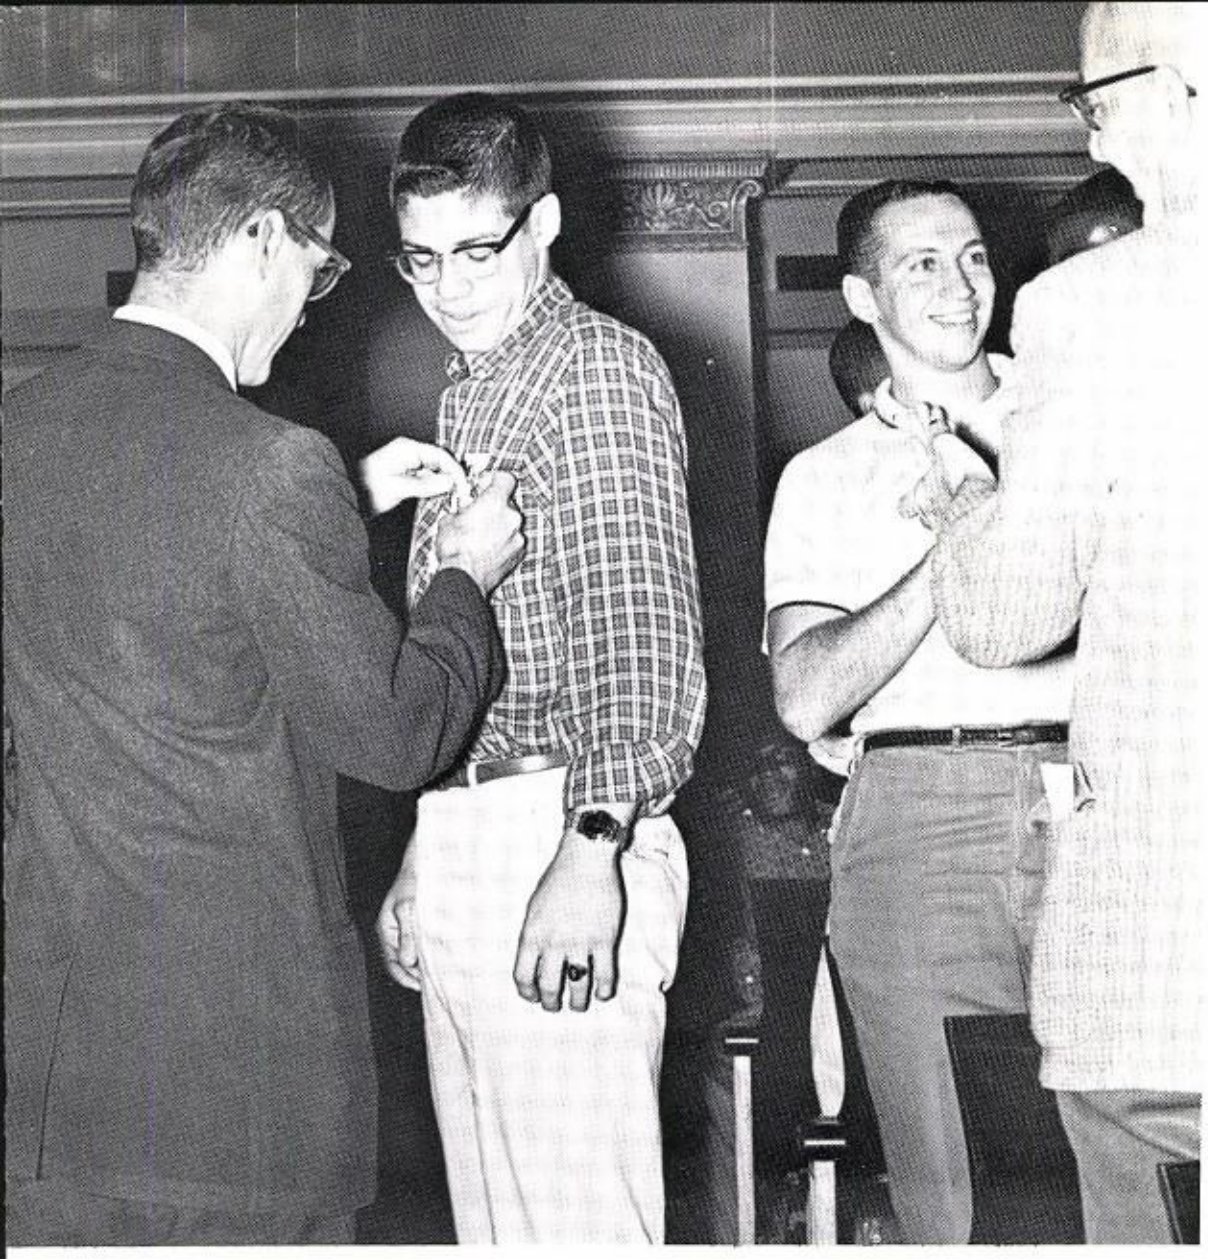
CUM LAUDE

MR. SHERWOOD CONGRATULATES DON DUNHAM, A NEW MEMBER OF CUM LAUDE.

One of the highest achievements to be obtained at Withrow is to be tapped for Cum Laude. Students are chosen on the basis of their averages in academic subjects only—English, foreign languages, science, social studies, and mathematics. They must have maintained a 3.56 average for eight academic subjects by the beginning of their senior year, or a 3.36 average for eleven subjects at the end of the first semester of that year. Students taking advanced placement subjects receive .5 points added to that subject's grade for each year of participation; .1 is added to the grade average of the students in the college preparatory program. In this year's assemblies, nine students were tapped the first semester and four the second, besides two members of the faculty—Miss Beck and Mr. Srofe. The silence of suspense was broken by proud Withrowites, and the walls of the auditorium reverberated with thunderous applause for these people.



MR. HIGGINS BESTOWED HONOR UPON RICH STUEBING AS HE GAVE THE CUM LAUDE PIN.

Patterned after Phi Beta Kappa, the college scholastic honorary society, Cum Laude, was founded in 1906 at Lorne School to give recognition for outstanding scholastic achievement. Today it includes 194 schools and numbers approximately 40,000 members. Largely through the efforts of Mr. Cadwallader and Mrs. Konrad, information was gathered and Withrow's application made in the school year of 1957-58. In December of 1958 we received our charter and became one of the seven area schools to belong to the society; each school is college preparatory, either entirely, or in part, as Withrow is. Since our enrollment in Cum Laude, 74 students have been elected to its ranks, and five teachers have been made honorary members in recognition of their outstanding service to the school's academic program. These people represent our most promising students along with our most capable teachers.

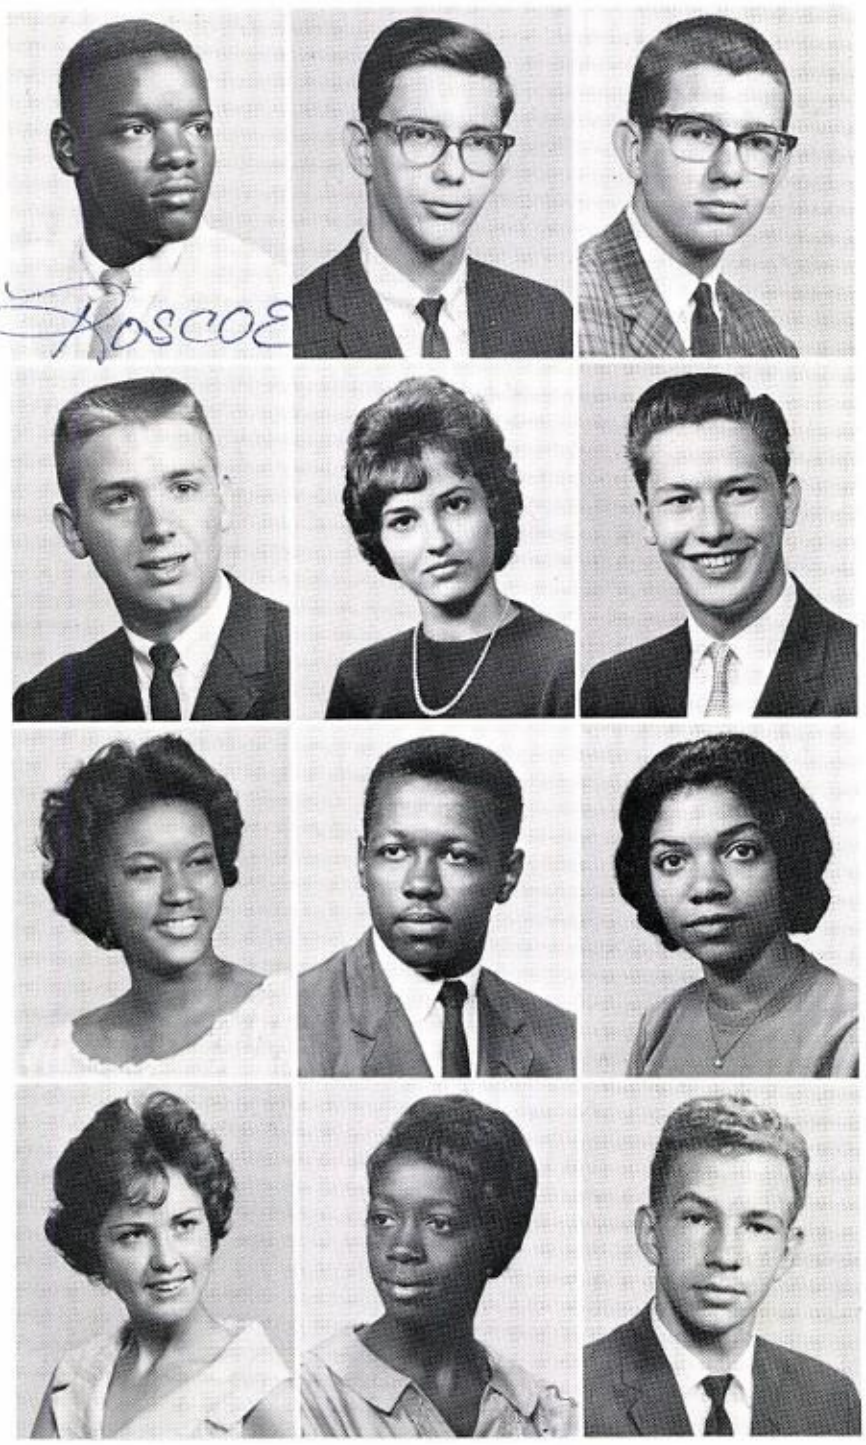
SENIORS

Think of Sue Nagel, a Dux with a whiteness to her forever present smile that contrasts with her dark, searching eyes—physical characteristics, yes, but they show what lies beneath. Intelligence, kindness, and willingness to work blended with a gay spirit and good humor combined to make a superb mixture. As Annual Art Editor, Secretary of Dux Femina and the Historian of Altruist, Sue worked for others as well as gained a valuable experience in being able to cope with heavy responsibilities. Her years spent at Withrow have been and will be in the future a great help for Sue and for the Alma Mater from which she departed.



SENIORS

Whether working in the Student Bookstore or in the Library, Mike Santoro's sincere and congenial personality never lost its ability to win friends and respect for him. Becoming chaplain of Sigma Gamma was merit for two of his greatest characteristics—intelligence and integrity. Participation in orchestra and in Minstrels have proven that underneath his somewhat shy exterior there lies a Withrowite with the ability to step forth and do his part for the improving of his school's musical curriculum. This soft-spoken, brown-eyed senior is an example of the truly outstanding students Withrow is capable of producing.

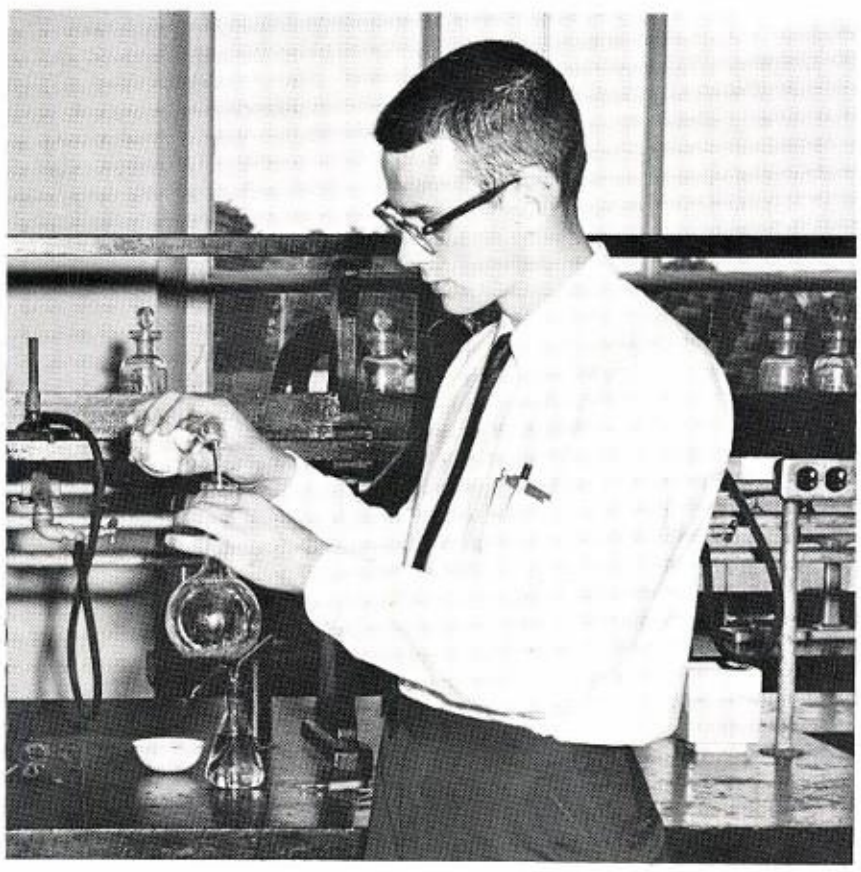
CHARLES SAWICKI



SENIORS

One of the outstanding seniors in the parade of Tigers was Charles Sawicki. Well known for his brilliant mind, Charles held an amiable position in the front rank. Sigma Gamma claimed him as a valuable member. All his Tigertown friends enjoyed his wit, and his winning smile and cheerful disposition explained his great popularity. His absorbing interest, studying any scientific material he could get his hands on, occupied every spare moment and made future research a dazzling prospect. His scholastic average made his plan of pursuing the study of chemistry or physics feasible and sure of success in the scientific field.

SENIORS

Holding the office of Advertising Manager of Tower News was only a small part of Kathy Onken's range of activities. Participation in GAA, Dolphin Club and Pep Club, along with cheerleading kept this active Dux on the go. As a pony in Minstrels and Sergeant-at-Arms of Altruist her capability showed. Being in Quill and Scroll, honorary literary club, Kathy was able to put her ingenuity to work. It was due to this pert little miss's ever pleasing personality and her exceedingly good looks as well as her varied field of achievements and her never-to-be-forgotten scholastic ability that Kathy was chosen as a Dux.

Senior Class Officers

N. Robinson, Treas.; L. Schlechty, Sec'y; B. Heimann, V. Pres.; R. Steubing, Pres.

The Senior Class, as fine and responsible a group of Tigertowners as they were, would have been in quite a muddle if not for the systematizing influence of the Senior Class officers. And what are senior class officers? They must be very special people in order to be chosen from a group of close to five hundred. Of course, all Withrow seniors are very special people, but these were the cream of the crop. To hold these positions of importance in an academic institution like Withrow, they had to be, first of all, outstanding students. To assume a position of leadership, they were naturally required to possess leadership qualities and an agreeable amiability which enabled them to hold the regard of the large number they represented.

Responsibility, one of the most important qualities demanded of them, was necessary to inspire trust in their followers. A prime obligation of these students was to provide an example of conscientious scholarship and good citizenship which others could look up to. For Tigertown, like any other thriving metropolis, is only as good as the best people in it; our "arching bridge and shaded valley" would have an empty beauty without loyal and staunch Tigertown citizens standing behind them. The Senior Class officers of '62 were near the head of the parade winding its way through our fair city. Respected and admired by teachers and pupils alike, these student leaders fulfilled their duties with hard work and steadfast determination.

PEP CLUB

THESE TIGERS WAIT HOPEFULLY AS THE TENSION MOUNTS IN A LAST MINUTE DECISION.

Withrow's Pep Club, consisting of chemistry students and their senior friends, met once a week in room 116. Mr. Gallagher's lively leadership gave added spirit to the club's activities. Throughout the year members sold school buttons and hats as money making projects. Increased attendance could be seen at football and basketball games as a result of the sponsoring of buses to distant games. The enthusiastic school spirit of these seniors and their dates was evident at each athletic event. The club has been in existence for three years, but this year was its first to sponsor the Annual Sports Banquet. Emphasizing their purpose of increasing school spirit among the students, the members put on their yearly pep assembly.

A very active and exceptional student in this year's Tigertown Parade was Becky Roebuck. A friendly smile and a glowing personality were two of her greatest assets. She has gained much recognition and honor while fulfilling her positions of chaplain for Altruist and president of Dux and Dolphin Club. Active membership in GAA provided not only experience of leadership for Becky, but also the gaining of many new friends. Being chosen as a member of Cum Laude is evidence of her high academic potential. Intelligence and an ability in leadership have aided Becky in becoming one of Tigertown's most outstanding '62 graduates.

Smith, Carol.

It's been a hard fought battle and the Tigers call time out. The band begins to play, and the managers race on the field, led by popular Sig Dave Schmidt. Although he did not participate in any of the sports himself, he served the athletic department well as football, basketball and baseball manager. Shy sincere and willing to work, Dave could be seen almost every evening after school washing football helmets, putting equipment in its various places, and carefully tucking every record away. Whether he was studying seriously for an exam or cheering the team, it is truly said that Dave Schmidt was a credit to Withrow.

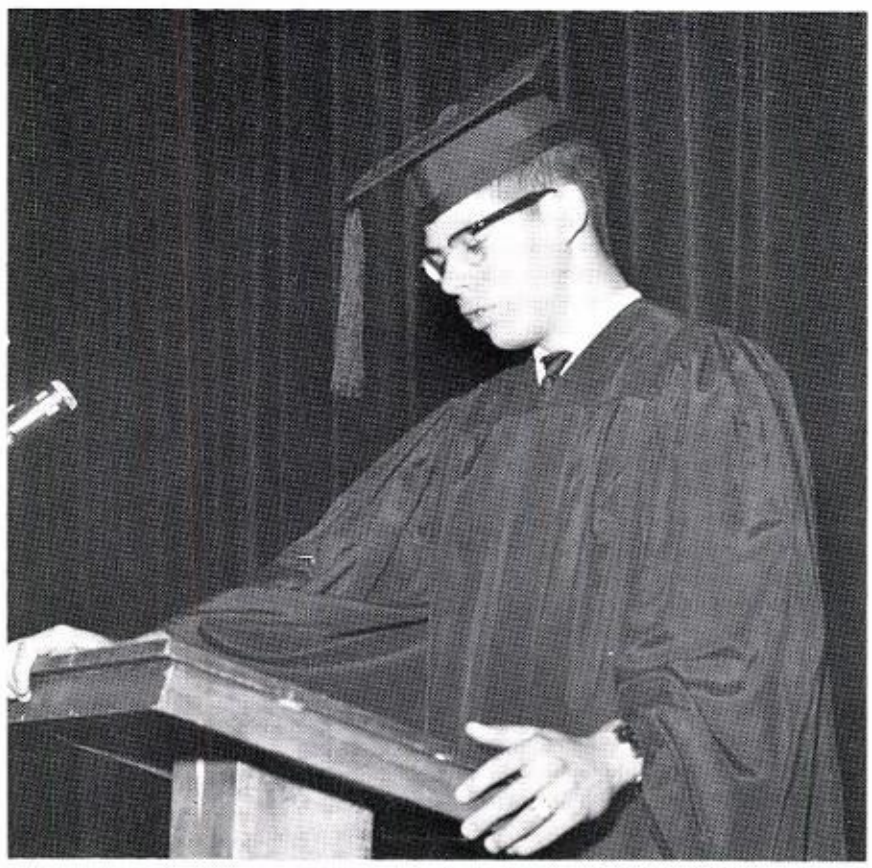
Richard Steubing, the President of the Class of '62, gained numerous, well-deserved honors during his four years at Withrow. Serving as "top man on the totem pole" is not new to Rich; he was also chosen to lead his church youth group and conduct the Sigma Gamma meetings. As the past president of Beta Hi-Y, his reign of presidencies began while he was a junior, and continued during his senior year; being on the tennis team was his main diversion. Excelling in Advanced Placement courses and receiving recognition from the Cum Laude Honor Society for scholastic achievement were steps towards his goal, entering Cornell University.

RICHARD STEUBING



Dux's capable vice-president, Lynda Schlechty, was one of Tigertown's busiest girls. When she was not keeping the minutes for the seniors her athletic inclinations led her to an active part in GAA. As captain of the line, pretty, vivacious "Sch" helped keep Withrow's twirlers on their toes. Her voice was intermingled with the others of Senior Choir, and Dance Club was also benefited by her diversified talents. This friendly lass's warmth and sincerity have won her many lasting friendships at her alma mater. With her good looks and radiant personality, she is sure to go quite far in her chosen profession of modeling.

SENIOR DREAMS

REVENGE IS SWEET! A SADISTIC PUPIL MERCILESSLY DRILLS HELPLESS TEACHERS ON THE MOST IMPORTANT LESSON OF THE YEAR.

Most of our seniors have spent four to six years at Withrow. During this long time there were certain rules and regulations by which they were governed. It was during this period that they developed all those secret wishes known as—Senior Dreams. When Seniors left the old familiar halls many took with them the satisfaction of appeasing a certain irk, or fulfilling an itching curiosity. The range of the senior fantasies was wide and varied, from lecturing a classroom full of teachers to licking a big bowl of the lunchroom's famous frosting. Through the underclassman days these things would have been impossible. Only through the magic of the last year were such exciting things made possible to the graduating class. This popular idea of depicting the funniest and most unusual of the dreams began back in 1953. Over the years the dreams have remained along many of the same lines, such as climbing to the top of the tower. That only chance to be ridiculous, once in a lifetime—a Senior Dream!

SUE SCHLEGAL

SENIORS

Talent, joviality, and poise are a few of the many traits possessed by this vivacious Dux girl. Participating in Minstrels as a pony, soloist, and Senior Choir member, Sue Schlegel portrayed her ability to dance and sing. Her ingenious personality and reliability marked her a true leader; she was chosen the president of Dance Club. Always active and on the go, Sue could be found in a great many organizations. Keeping up her membership in GAA and acting as historian of BOX, this pert little senior busied herself. It is without a doubt that Sue, with her warm smile and genial nature will be a success in the future.

Dick Todd may be well-described in one word—witty. His numerous friends were constantly amused by his clever jokes and humorous antics. Dick's sunny, out-going nature made him extremely well-liked around Tigertown. Playing trombone in the band, Presentation Orchestra and a Minstrels Dixie-land combo, he showed a great deal of musical talent. On the serious side, Dick found that his three years in advanced standing English were stimulating. This friendly, responsible nineteen sixty-two senior, who was also a member of Kappa Tau Kappa, deserved receiving one of Withrow's highest honors—hearing "Sigma Gamma calls—Dick Todd!"

ACTIVITIES PARADE

The ringing of the dismissal bell at three o'clock meant only the beginning of a parade of activities for many busy Tigers. The junior high students might have joined creative clubs while those of the senior high perhaps belonged to honorary, social, musical, and language groups.

Officers: M. Costa, V. Pres.; T. Frame, Pres.; P. Crowley, Treas.; J. Keller, Rec. Sec'y.

Student Council's having a regular and an alternate member from each homeroom assured a full representation at every meeting. An equal balance of classes was maintained by the election of members-at-large. President Tom Frame led the group in a well planned year's work. The guide book written for new students proved most helpful in orientating newcomers to our parade. Presenting the history of Withrow's past and its famous alumni, carrying out an extensive clean-up campaign, and also taking charge of the Thanksgiving Assembly were typical projects of this year's Student Council agenda. The selling of chocolate bars netted a sum of money sufficient to provide a scholarship for a council member.

STUDENT COUNCIL MONITORS

From City Hall comes the enforcement of laws via the police. At Withrow a small scale situation is present. Student Council, the voice of every student, has monitors to perform a similar task which intails guarding the halls from students from other schools and watching the lunchroom. These monitors volunteered to serve the school in this most difficult task. They found it hard to "police" their friends, but the thought of a better school was the rewarding feeling each experienced. Requirements for this service were that each person had to have a study hall during which time he could monitor, and he had to be passing in all subjects. From checking to see if all persons cleared the lunchroom table of his tray to checking times on corridor passes, the monitor's study time was nil. For industrious pupils this was quite a sacrifice. Many changes were made this year. The force was cut down to make it more effective. This accomplished, Student Council's monitor system made greater progress.

COUNCIL'S REVUE OF THE PAST OF WITHROW WAS AN IMPORTANT CONTRIBUTION.

Mr. Law, T. Skidmore, S. Summer, J. Benedict, C. Eby, P. Hensley.

The Junior High Student Council was established seven years ago so that Withrow Junior High might also have representation. The Council had a busy year setting up new practices and abiding by old ones. Furnishing buses to the two championship games was a worthwhile project, as was having a bake sale to raise money for charity. The Junior Council also sponsored a dance given in February and contributed some money for a school project. The main purpose of the organization is creating stronger bonds of loyalty between the students and the school. The actions and suggestions were carried to and from the homerooms by elected representatives. Officers consisted of President Peggy Hensley, Vice President Claudia Eby, Recording Secretary Terrie Skidmore, and Treasurer Sara Summer.

To be chosen by teachers and graduating Dux Feminae for membership in Withrow's honorary society, a girl must have a high scholastic average, a well-rounded set of activities, and good leadership qualities. Twelve outstanding members of Tigertown's feminine population were found who capably met these strict requirements. As each girl's praises were sung in a poem, she came forward to receive her red carnation and gold bracelet, her special passports into the gay and exciting year just ahead. The Duxs of '62 will be remembered for their kindness in providing underfed doughnut lovers with nourishment at the games.

SIGMA GAMMA

You are waiting anxiously in the stands, suddenly you hear the chant "Sigma Gamma Calls." Who will it be? The person in front of you, behind you, down the row, yourself? Each year twelve deserving Withrowites are called to the royal ranks of Sigma Gamma. One may be a football player, another president of Student Council, and yet another an important member of the orchestra. But each has done some outstanding service to the school in one way or another. The Sigs this year were an active group; under the direction of President Richard Stuebing they worked on such activities as Tigertown Twirl and the Senior Prom. Another very important thing the group did was award a scholarship to a fellow student. Each year the Sigma Gammas are selected for their leadership, skill in class, and their activities; this year's class was a good example.

SCRIBBLERS

Scribblers, the girls' honorary literary society, had seventeen junior and senior members. Many exciting and worthwhile projects were completed by this group of industrious authoresses. At meetings held twice a month they planned bake sales, listened to guest speakers, and held informal discussions. Besides selling Withrow charms they held a theater party at the "Walton Creek Theater" where numerous Withrowites watched "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs." Through a conscientious effort they transformed hard work into fun, and at Christmas time the new members were presented with engraved sterling bracelets.

QUILL AND SCROLL

After the re-establishment of its charter in 1957-58, Withrow's Quill and Scroll, an honorary journalism club, appealed to the talents of the writers of Tower News. One of many across the nation, this organization chooses its members on the basis of their journalistic skill, contributions, and grades. New members are given charms, and this year the club was fortunate enough to boast of two male members. One project for this year was the selling of sweatshirts and the purchasing of a camera for T. N. under Mrs. McDonough's sponsorship. The aim of Quill and Scroll is to promote a lively interest in Tower News and the field of journalism.

ANNUAL ART STAFF

Sparked with inspiration by Sue Nagel, art editor, and Mr. Jack Mueller, faculty adviser, the members of our '62 Annual Art Staff worked industriously to produce this outstanding yearbook. Originality and cooperation were the keywords. With tremendous preparation these "masters of the pica rule" expertly designed layouts, cropped pictures, and prepared division pages. Ingenuity on the part of the section editors turned into enjoyment the countless hours spent constructing and checking the makeups for each page. Section deadlines were set and met. Out of all the resulting chaos arose "Parade" our '62 Annual. Its success or failure in the eyes of the students depended largely upon the originality and ability of all those who worked with the Annual Art Staff.

LITERARY STAFF

The Annual Literary Staff is completely responsible for all the written material used in the yearbook. Each member contributed many worthwhile hours during and after school writing captions and copy-blocks—altogether working for the best annual ever. All of this is rewarded with a feeling of accomplishment when the long hours of work are seen in print. Sometimes meeting a deadline or completing a difficult assignment created a challenge but provided valuable experience. Serving as the co-editors of the staff were Katie McCright and Bonnie Williams with Mrs. Ladley as adviser. The cooperation and patience of the section editors working side by side with the Art Staff helped in creating an annual not easily forgotten.

BUSINESS STAFF

The little acknowledged portion of the Annual Staff was the business section. Heading the staff were editor Carol Rutherford and adviser Mr. Arthur Rhollans. Sixth bell found the girls in Room 160 eagerly balancing the books. It takes a great deal of expense to finance an annual the size and quality of Tigertown's. Thus, throughout the year the staff made money by the selling of postcards and individual pictures, and by making appointments for senior portraits. Due to the efforts of this competent staff tickets were sold for Minstrel tryouts and the Annual Homecoming Dance. Mr. Mueller helped the two photographers in their choice of shots for the classic pictures reproduced in the "Parade." The Literary Staff operated with the aid of Mrs. Ladley.

TOWER NEWS

Next in the parade of Tiger activities is our four-paged weekly paper, Tower News. Walking down the hall sixth bell a stranger might be shocked to hear wild noises and strange shoutings coming from Room 12. Those of us at Tigertown, however, realize that this is merely our conscientious TN staff industriously attempting to put out another fine copy of the paper. Mrs. McDonough, adviser; Mr. Whitaker, assistant adviser; and Margaret Bisset, editor-in-chief aided the staff in turning out approximately twenty-eight articles a week. They always do much more than merely produce a paper. Members of the staff are responsible for a booth at Tigertown Twirl, senior announcements, an open house, a Valentine's Day dance, and the senior popularity poll. The twenty-nine members are divided into business and editorial staffs. The Business Staff consists of typists and advertising editors. The Editorial Staff is divided into four parts, each responsible for a different side of the news. Other invaluable workers are the members of the Art Staff, the photographers, and the reporters. Tower News is well-known for its fine covering of sports, general news of Withrow, articles on outstanding teachers and seniors, editorials, anecdotes, and calendar reminders.

The people who aid in the production of a parade are as important as the leaders. Without library helpers teachers would not receive their needed books, and without the bookstore managers, pupils would not be able to buy all those needed objects like ink, gym suits, Student Council jackets, and above all, books. One very important phase of the day was lunchtime. The lunchroom was continually busy from early morning on, trying to make ready for the hungry students who flocked in droves at the sound of the efficient lunchboy's call. Without the help of the lunchboys, who kept the schedule clear and called the rooms on time, the diligent work of the lunchroom helpers would have been in vain. In conclusion, Withrow needed its helpers to maintain its well-running system of extra-curricular activities, necessities, and above all its scholastic training.

LATIN CLUB

Those students fascinated by the involved complexities of Latin grammar and intrigued by the goddesses and heroes of ancient Roman history found kindred spirits in Withrow's Latin Club, better known as Gens Togata. Directed by Mrs. Hill, the enthusiastic members of this club staged plays filled with the atmosphere of old Rome and learned much about the customs of its people. Money was raised by modern methods, such as bake sales. The spring banquet brought another fun-filled year to a close with the election of a new consul prima. Julius Caesar himself would have been proud of these enthusiasts of antiquity who made the past live again.

They may not have accomplished much in the field of foreign relations, but Withrow's French, Spanish, and German clubs filled the corridors of Tigertown with an exotic atmosphere. Absorbed in alien customs, the members in their regular meetings learned to understand and appreciate the peoples of other lands. Several of the high spots in the year's activities were the German Club's booth at Tigertown Twirl which sold German pastries, the slides of Mr. Mueller's European trip which were shown to the French Club, and the prizes provided for "Tigertown Calling" by Spanish Club. At Christmas parties, caroling voices could be heard in three different languages. These clubs helped answer today's demand for peace through understanding of our world neighbors.

Three other clubs have done much to make Withrow well-rounded. Alpha Y-Teens, which was advised by Mrs. Evelyn Hodory, was a YWCA sponsored group of girls. They spent a busy year doing service projects, selling potato chips, and generally having fun. Mr. Salie, director of Future Merchandisers, helped introduce the members of the club to the business world. Participants were given on-the-job training in any of a number of different occupations. Withrow's Chess and Checker Club formed a team which, coached by Mr. Rubendunst, played in meets all over the city. At the time of this writing they were tied for the city championship.

FHA

These future homemakers of tomorrow, under the capable supervision of Mrs. Frances Noonan, strive for better home and community life to encourage democracy in the home, to gain a better appreciation and knowledge of homemaking and to further interest in home economics. This year's theme, "Helping Others," was demonstrated when, as projects, the club sent clothes and food to a needy Withrow family for Christmas and when they made and filled Easter baskets for less fortunate small children. Withrow is the only high school in the city which has a certified Future Homemakers of America Chapter.

HEALTH CAREERS

A renewed interest was taken in the Health Careers Club this year. The club had twenty five members and was sponsored by Miss Denner with aid from students' mothers. Meetings were held on the first Monday of every month. The purpose of the organization is to give information and guidance to students interested in any kind of work in the medical field. To achieve this the members toured Christ Hospital, had a guest dental hygienist, visited the Ford plant's medical center, and saw movies. The club's project this year was to make Christmas favors for various hospitals.

ART CLUB

This year the Art Club branched out and became more active than ever before. Composed of senior high students, under the supervision of Mr. Mueller, they were responsible for many of the worthwhile projects that added a certain bit of culture to the school. At Christmas they furnished the showcase in the hall with a modernistic theme depicting the Three Kings. The members were responsible for the excellent soap sculpture display and for posters for other organizations. They also brought a measure of happiness this year to the teachers by decorating their lunchroom.

OFFSET CLUB

The organization which was perhaps most beneficial to Withrow from a practical standpoint was the Offset Club. Directed by Mr. George Haymond, adviser, and Herb Brandenburg, president, it provided the school with handbills, tickets, football schedules, booklets of the social clubs, and programs for concerts, plays and the Minstrels. Besides printing membership cards, the boys wore rings and pins as identifying symbols. The members put to use the experience gained in club meetings by entering their individual projects in a contest sponsored by the Ohio Industrial Arts Association.

Creating an aura of active interest in the workings of our government and our rich heritage from the past, Clionian History Club provided each member with a stimulating curriculum. At the monthly meetings, wide-ranging topics of historical or political interest were discussed by various speakers. A number of students from this group, chosen by a competitive test on current events, attended a four-state convention of the Junior Council on World Affairs at a downtown hotel. At the Conference on International Affairs held at the Netherland Hilton Hotel, the History Club officers represented Withrow in the different panel discussions.

Members of Withrow's Junior Band were kept busy all year round with various activities. In the fall the band marched at all home junior high football games and performed at two junior high pep assemblies. In early spring they combined with the junior choir for their annual concert. Later they played at local elementary schools. The year was brought to a close at the band picnic where deserving members received Junior Band letters. They are directed by Mr. Don Lackey and are backed by a group of interested parents, the Band Boosters Club. This vital organization gives junior musicians a chance to display their talent.

THALIAN

Thalian Club, under the supervision of Miss Marjorie Rosenberger, was quite active this year. Members of Thalian, teamed with members from the Advanced Drama class, presented a pep assembly skit. In December they did an evening of 3 one-act plays, "The Noble Lord," "A Case For Two Detectives," and "The Valiant." Members found time at Christmas to go to Findley Street House to take presents to the children. Thalian's final undertaking was the spring production of "Stardust."

"STAR DUST"

"Quiet on the set. Places for the first act!" Thus began another theatrical performance at Withrow. The actors, tired but excited, presented their annual spring play. The dramatists, composed of students from the Thalian Players and the Advanced Drama classes, did a modern comedy by Walter Kerr, "Stardust." After long and strenuous rehearsals, the play, under the direction of Miss Majorie Rosenberger, was ready to go on. The audience received it enthusiastically.

"SEE PHIL, MY TALENT WILL GET ME TO HOLLYWOOD EVEN IF YOU DON'T THINK SO!"

"DID YOU OR DID YOU NOT ON JULY 22, 1912, ABSCOND WITH THE ENTIRE FUNDS OF THE WILKES-BARRE CHORAL AND TATTING SOCIETY?"

Whenever they appear in one of their polished performances throughout the year, the vocalists of Senior Choir never fail to touch the hearts of students with pride and awe. Their annual Christmas Concert enriches the seasonal spirit with appropriate music, and the Spring Program brings as much pleasure as the first burst of green. Led by their president, Eddie Radford, and directed by Mr. Ansel Martin, this melodious group upheld their school's reputation for producing talented Tigers and again served as the very backbone of the Minstrels. An exciting year was made complete by giving a performance at North High School in Columbus, Ohio.

Madrigal

A feeling of great pride and joy filled the hearts of the members of Senior Choir as the end of another year approached. Long hours of hard practice and determination had been spent, not only to maintain the high standards of the fine music ability that the choir has upheld, but also to try to raise enough money to set aside an adequate sum for the robe fund. This would enable the choir to be able to purchase new robes in the near future. Through the combined efforts of Mr. Martin, the members of choir, and Madrigal, who performed for several outside organizations during the year, the Senior Choir succeeded in having a very prosperous year.

ORCHESTRA

By participating in the Christmas and Spring Concerts the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Don Lackey, has again provided Withrowites with beautiful and classical symphonic music. As proof of its musical ability the orchestra celebrated its sixth anniversary and won a renowned place in this year's Tigertown Parade.

JUNIOR CHOIR

Experience for future membership in Senior Choir, Glee Club or Mixed Chorus is gained by young Withrowites in the Junior Choir. Having been taught the fundamentals of vocal music under the guidance of Mr. O'Rourke, its members gained recognition and achievement by participating in the Christmas and Junior High Spring Concerts.

Constantly striving for perfection, members of the Mixed Chorus have given other students the chance to gain a more varied appreciation of music.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB

Blending their delicate, harmonious voices, members of the Girls' Glee Club, under Mr. Martin's supervision, have proved themselves an asset to Withrow's musical curriculum. TIGERTOWN TWIRL:
HOLLY SHICK AND STEVE CONWAY

ROYALTY PARADE

As their sophomore year opened up before them, Tigers waited with baited breath for invitations to rushing parties from their favorite social clubs. Organized to provide fun and activities for Withrowites, the clubs also stressed scholarship; students were required to maintain passing grades in every subject, or a 1.75 average, to be eligible for rushing. At parties, the rushees became acquainted with and were entertained by their prospective brothers and sisters. Then came the period known as pledging, during which the pledges were good-naturedly teased and tormented by the actives. Once initiated, they could breathe easily again and plunge into the busy year awaiting them. None will forget the long hours spent making countless paper flowers for the floats and booths at Homecoming and Tigertown Twirl, the time spent in helping the less fortunate by visiting convalescent homes and the like—in general, the comradeship enjoyed by working, playing, and furthering higher ideals together.

Loyalty, sisterhood, concern for all, school spirit—these words all apply to Beta Omega Chi. Throughout the year BOX girls showed their concern for others by giving some of their leisure time to serve as ushers at Playhouse in the Park. Sisterly love was exuded during the hectic season of rushing, as each big sister led her little sister into the world of the sorority. Stag nights at sports events proved their school spirit. For the third consecutive year, BOX's Tigertown booth received the trophy, making it now permanently theirs. The closeness which can only be found by sharing trials, tribulations, and triumphs is characteristic of BOX.

In inspired comradeship, the Tri Chi's worked and played harmoniously together this year. Led by Presidents Jeff Farrar and Jerry York, "The Flyers" participated in stag nights, paper drives, fraternity sports, and numerous date parties. Celebrating the Yule Tide season appropriately, they had a formal at the Terrace Park Country Club. A caroling party with the BOX girls, and a swinging New Year's Eve party at "Rads." The club has a rule forbidding drinking and smoking, but this has not hindered their good times. The basic principles expressed in Tri Chi's constitution are character, comradeship, and citizenship and this year's class has lived up to these high standards.

Smittie

Behind the scenes Elston Hurst and his crew focused lights, secretaries scurried about doing innumerable duties, make-up girls added a touch of color to performers and the costume committee got them ready to go on. Behind the curtain a hushed excitement prevailed as "Smittie" gave the cue to begin the show. With a thunder of drums, and clash of the cymbals the thirty-second year of the Withrow Minstrels began. Opening to the tune of "Good Day," harmonious voices of the chorus members were heard as ponies danced a lively tap number. The talent of a rope twirler, voices of a trio and peppy soloist, and the high-kicking steps of the ponies in a cowboy number brought about much audience applause. Changing the mood, choir members performed by singing favorite old college songs as they presented a Campus Capers theme. Gay colors and graceful dancing caught the eyes of many, as ponies danced around a maypole, while more subdued colors captured the mist in a fog production. Between numbers, the audience was entertained with humorous skits and endmen jokes. There was never a dull moment; and as the cast closed with the Minstreleer song, chills ran up and down their backs. Another successful year—a great show!

Academics

STUDENT TEACHERS, WHILE GAINING EXPERIENCE, OFFER STUDIOUS YOUNG PUPILS INTERESTING CLASSES AND A COMFORTABLE ATMOSPHERE.

Withrow is naturally proud of her parade of fine clubs and teams; she can take pride in the work students do in organizing dances and open houses, but the fundamental principle in coming to school is learning. Scholastic averages are of great importance to students who wish to play on athletic teams, be an active member in social organizations, or participate in any of the various associations. The graduating class of this year has a major distinction; it is the first class ever to start the college preparatory class in the seventh and eighth grades. This system was organized the year they started junior high school and has been in existence ever since. Withrow caters to many students whose courses range from the advanced placement group to the special classes. The backbone of any school is the education of students to their utmost capabilities, and Withrow strives patiently to obtain this achievement.

Although a parade is associated with fun and merry making, it is essentially a march with the object of reaching a goal, as was the Tiger parade. Our goal was the preparation of Withrow students to take their individual places in life as responsible adults. Although the floats entered by activities and social clubs serve a wonderful purpose and add that extra something which every parade needs, the main theme of the march was education. A strong desire to learn, attentiveness in class, and good study habits are the instruments we use to keep in harmony with this theme. When we come within sight of the straight and narrow streets of Good Citizenship, Initiative, and Skill, we are coming nearer to the end of our journey. If we look for the leaders of our procession, we see the teachers, veterans of past parades, showing the way and keeping the ranks in good order. Many Tigers, lagging behind despite all efforts, have been drawn into the procession again by their helpfulness. Although everyone cannot be the main attraction of the parade, the ordinary musicians are indispensable to it, and each gets there just the same and reaches the common goal by his individual perseverance. At the journey's end, all glance back fondly, then enter a greater parade.

THE PROBLEMS OF GEOMETRY OFTEN KEEP PUPILS PUZZLED FOR HOURS.

Intellectuality as well as creativity keynoted the academic side of Tigertown. Preparation for almost all future vocations was insured through the wide variety of courses given to each student. In subject choice no school offered more to its pupils from the seventh to twelfth grades than Withrow gave its Tigers. . The probing scientific mind found reward in classes from botany and physiology to advanced chemistry. Mathematicians delighted in solving the mazes of algebra, geometry, and calculus. Those with a flair for the creative line appeased their desires in art, metalcraft, or wood shop. On the domestic side, both junior and senior homemaking contributed largely to the well-rounded backgrounds. For the college-bound students courses in the humanities were presented, so each student had several choices; and he selected those best for him.

An important part of the Withrow Parade this year was contributed by the athletic department. In the fall, students were seen bundled up in overcoats, sitting patiently at a football game, waiting for a touchdown or interception that so often leads to either victory or defeat. Around the beginning of December boys were seen packing away cleats and shoulder pads and getting out basketballs. The Tigers' basketball season was highly successful and served as a fine means of showing spirit and enthusiasm. Shooting, passing, and rebounding their way to a PHSL and Southwestern District Championship, Withrow's courageous Bengals showed team spirit throughout the season. In spring this year, a young man's thoughts naturally turned to baseball. The excitement of a back-handed stab by a third baseman, or the tension of wating for the call on an attempted steal was fun for all observers. Thrilling sports events highlighted many weekends for all Tigers, both participants and Tiger followers.

A SENATOR TRIES TO SCORE AFTER SNAGGING A PASS DEEP IN ENEMY TERRITORY.

The Tigers of Withrow started their practices in August, sweating out many long hours of work. This year's team had many new faces including that of their coach, Richard Filbin. Mr. Filbin, with his assistants, Mr. Merritt and Mr. Williams, spent much time selecting the players to be on the team, figuring out new plays, and coping with the boys' personal problems. On September 8, the night of Pigskin Preview, they were ready. Playing Hughes to a tie and losing to top-rated Taft, they showed the PHSL that they were going to be tough competition. In their next game the Bengals lost 22-8 to a tough Roger Bacon team. The following week was the big one; behind by a touchdown at the half, the orange and black came back to beat the St. Xavier Bombers in a thrill-packed second half. The following week was a 36-12 loss to a rugged Elder team.

The next couple of weeks were highly unsuccessful for the Tigers. Meeting the Taft Senators in their own back yard, the Tigers battled down to the last second losing by 20-14 in a thrilling gridiron encounter. In the first half Withrow jumped to a 14 to 0 lead on Junior Fullback Elliott Green's plunge into the end zone and high scoring Halfback Bill Bailey's 60 yard run. The Senators came roaring back in the second half, scoring three touchdowns, but Withrow was not dead yet, with 43 seconds remaining in the game, Chuck Williams made a beautiful run only to have the ball knocked out of his hands and recovered by Taft on the 2 yard line. Withrow's next game was with the defending Catholic League Champs, Purcell. Playing well after defeating a highly rated Northern team, the Cavaliers made short work of the Tigers defeating them 44-20.

Victory, Victory is our cry—V-I-C-T-O-R-Y, and victory is exactly what the Tigers brought to their Alma Mater. Playing the Big Reds of Hughes to a 28-12 score, Withrow showed backfield form that was the envy of every team in the league. The Tigers took a big three-touchdown lead in the first half only to have it crumble to a mere one, but in the fourth quarter Bill Ferone ran 30 yards on a fourth-down play to cinch the victory. Withrow's next game was with the "dark horse" of the PHSL, Central. The Knights showed how they won the championship by coming back in the last two minutes of play and scoring two touchdowns to beat the Tigers 14-6. In a rain soaked defensive battle the orange and black scored their third victory against Western Hills 12-0. A Homecoming day crowd stood soaked to the bone to watch the Tigers pull it out of the fire when the Mustangs menaced.

A TIGER RECEIVES LAST MINUTE WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT FROM THE COACH.

On the field marched the Bulldogs of Woodward. How ferocious they looked, how confidently they went through their drills! They had all but locked up the Public High title with their undefeated PHSL league record. Well, they weren't so confident or ferocious after the Tigers got through with them. In one of the biggest upsets of the season Withrow beat them 24-14. In the final game of the season the Tigers made a valiant effort but could not match the score, as Walnut Hills beat them 8-0. Three members of this year's squad made various all-city teams; they were Quarterback Bill Ferone, Halfback Bill Bailey and Center Steve Hern. This year's team had its ups and downs, successes and failures, victories and defeats; but if success were measured by toil and sweat and victories by personal problems overcome by working together, they would be the baron of any championship of any league, any place.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

PLAYERS GET FINAL INSTRUCTIONS FROM COACH.

Guided by an able and willing coach, Jim Williams, the Reserve Team compiled a record of five wins and two losses. They tied a hard fighting Bacon squad to a 6-6 decision in a scrimmage game. In the next game, they lost to a powerful Purcell squad 30-6. They then went on to beat Western Hills by the score of 12-0. Next they turned back a fighting Taft team 22-12 and battled an able Woodward squad to a 16-0 decision. After defeating a determined Hughes team 18-0, they lost a heart-breaker to a spirited Central eleven 22-12. Withrow racked up twelve points early in the first half and led 12-0. Central came fighting back to score a touchdown late in the second quarter and Withrow led 12-8 at the half. In the second half, Central scored two touchdowns. One came early in the third quarter and the other was on an end sweep late in the fourth quarter, for eight points and the game. This cost Withrow the PHSL title as they placed second behind the undefeated Central squad. Withrow took the last game of the season from Walnut, 22-0 as the Eagles played host to the Tigers. This year's squad was one of the best in Withrow's history as Captains Wendell Mettey and Dave Sherman led them to victory.

The Tigers come out of the huddle, the quarterback calls the signals, and the ends go deep. Here comes the pass, and it's caught for a touchdown. This play and many others were the kind that brought the Junior High Eastern Division and the City Championship to Withrow. This year's league was a rough one, with such aggressive teams as Woodward, Walnut Hills, Eastern Hills, Lyon, Cutter, Shroeder, and the dangerous Ach squad, who handed the Bengals their only defeat of the season. The playoff game with Western Division Champions, Porter, was a big thrill to win. It not only won the City Championship, but also avenged the whalloping Withrow took two years ago from Porter in the game. The Ach game was the second to last game of the season and they just won it by two points. This game put Withrow in a tie for the league lead, but in the last game the Orange and Black beat Lyon, while Shroeder upset Ach. Many junior high schools in this league feed students into Withrow, so many of the boys who played against each other last year will be teammates next year, and from all indications of the league standings the Tigers should be a strong title contender in the PHSL for at least two forthcoming seasons.

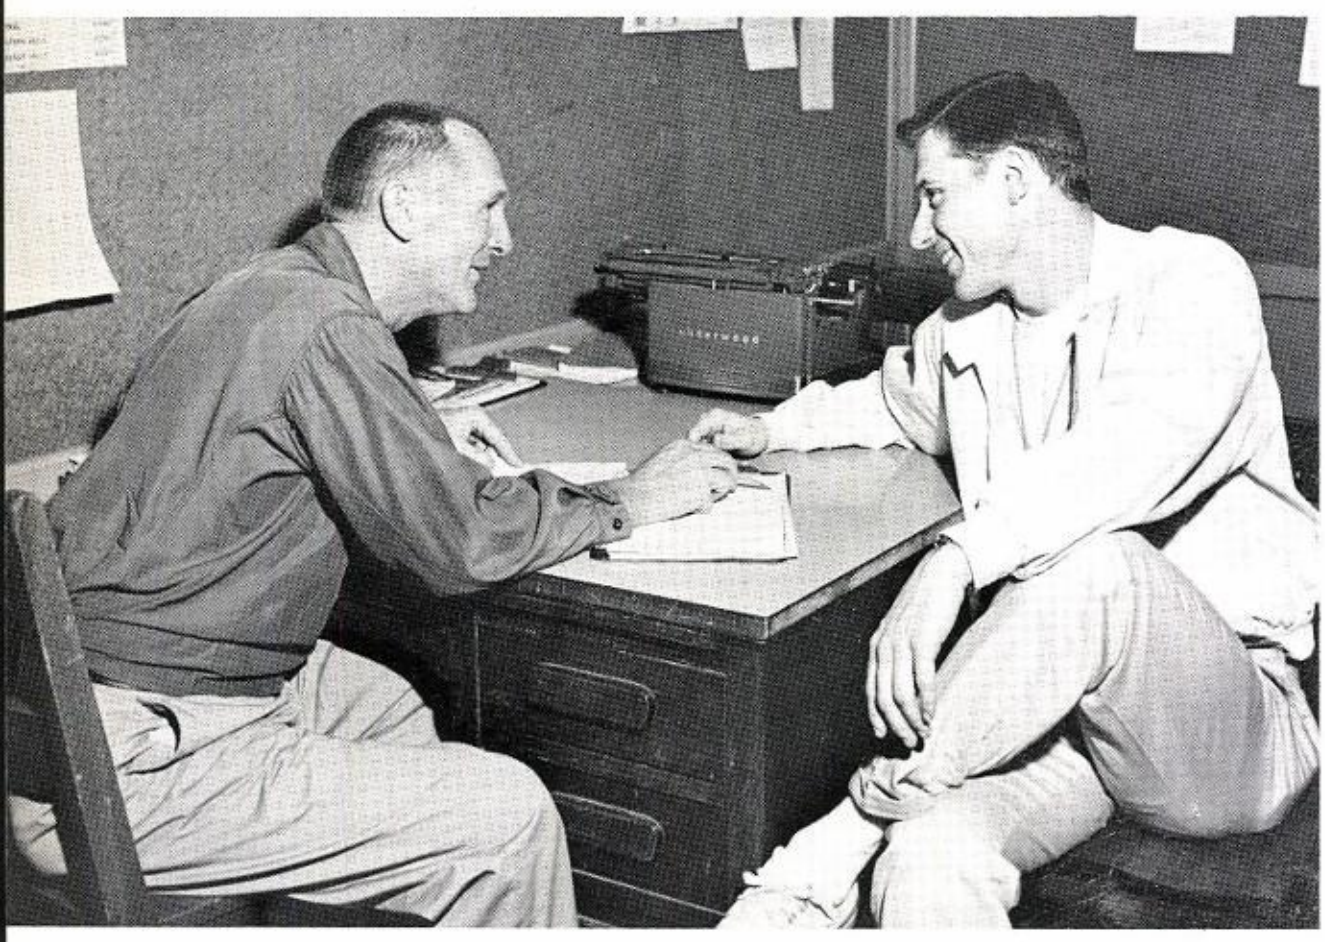
VARSITY BASKETBALL

Mr. Huheey, Mr. Ernst



Leading the Tiger Parade through the winter months was Withrow's excellent basketball team. The boys were backed by the managers, who kept equipment in order, cared for the uniforms, both varsity and reserve, and kept records of the teams' activities. Dave Schmitt headed the corps of managers. The cheerleaders rallied behind the boys and gave them the inspiration and spirit to win. Petite, vivacious Garrie Skidmore led her eight energetic parade followers through the almost exhausting routines of "Fight!", "Kerboom!", and "Hello." Coaches Huheey and Ernst in accordance with tall, nonchalant Charlie Orr, the captain, tried to keep the marchers in step and prevent the mistakes that occur in the best drilled and organized parade. For the coaches' help the boys were grateful.

SENIOR LETTERMEN

An important part of the Tiger Parade this year was contributed by the senior lettermen of the basketball team. Playing to their utmost capacity for their alma mater, the boys gave everything they had in each game, no matter how easy the contest was. A vital member of the squad this year was tall, thin Steve Coaston. His aggressive defense, rebounding, and timely tip-ins were helpful all season. All Withrow patrons who witnessed the Middletown game will remember Steve for sinking four consecutive free throws in the final minutes of play to insure victory for the Tigers. An inspiring member of the squad was guard Bill Ferone. Whether he was driving in for a lay up or ball-hawking at mid court he showed courage and skill. Withrow landed three players on the all-city team this year. Richard West made the third string team; Charlie Orr and Roland West both landed spots on the first string. Richard has a reputation as one of the league's most fierce competitors. He is known for aggressive rebounding, vicious defensive play, and the stunning way he executes his hooks, jumpshots, and lay ups. Long and lanky Roland West developed into one of the district's top-notch players this season. His uncanny accuracy from the outside, and the graceful way he blocks shots makes him a rough customer to deal with. During the tournament he had over twenty points a game and was the main factor in winning the district title. There could never be enough said about Charlie Orr. His shooting, defense, ball handling, and rebounding have made him Withrow's big man for the last two seasons. In every game this year Charlie has been an outstanding player. Every senior boy on the squad has been important in the success of the Tigers, and we are thankful for the sacrifices they made in presenting Withrow with the championship.

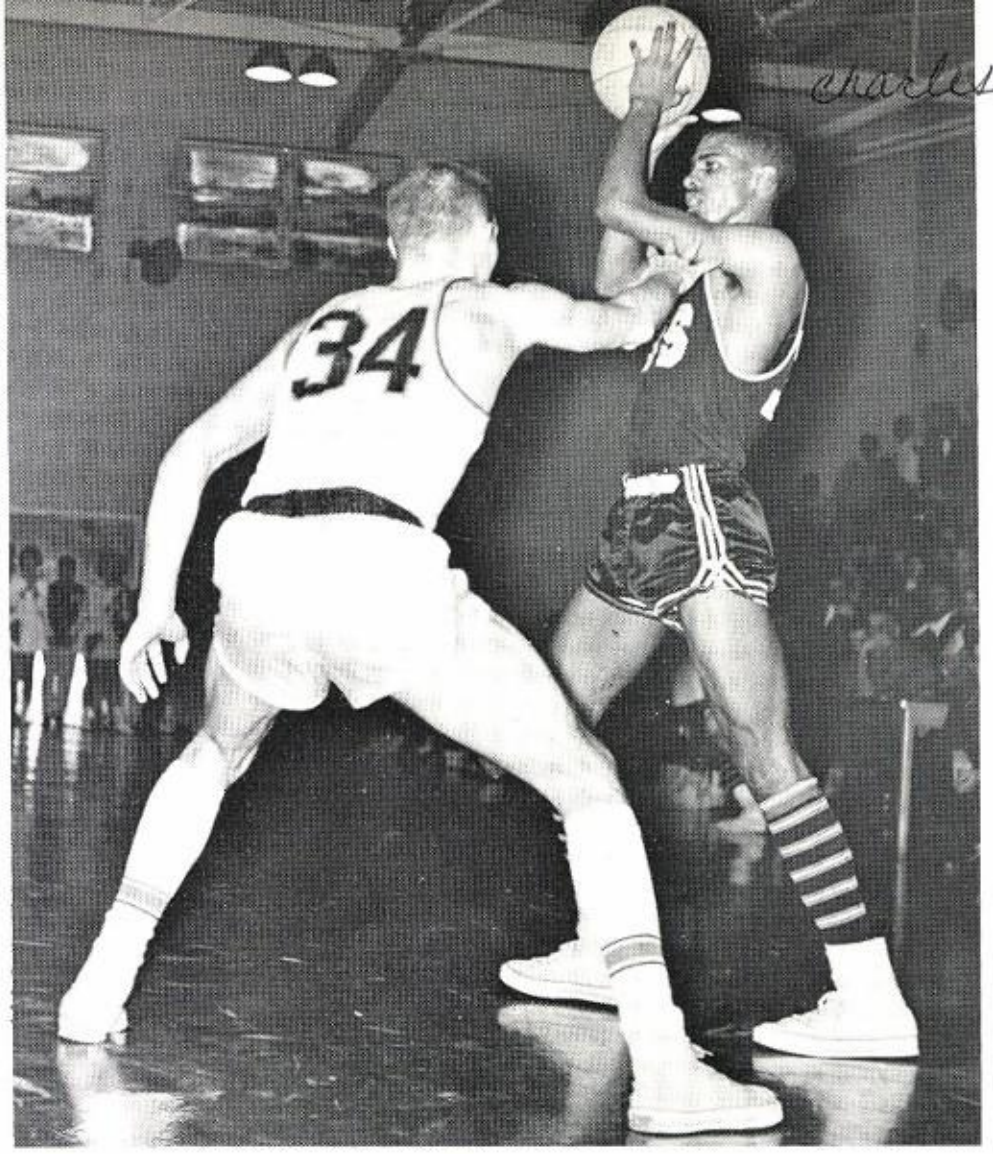
JOHNSON MAKES ANOTHER SHOT FOR THE HIGH-FLYING TIGERS.

The squad of this year had much for which to strive. Repeating a performance that gave them a second place in the PHSL league and a first place in the district tournament would be hard for any team to match. Led by Charles Orr, whose bullseye accuracy and inspiring defensive play landed him a spot on the all-city team last year and Roland West, whose uncanny outside shooting and aggressive rebounding gave him an outstanding reputation, the Tigers piled up victory on top of victory. Starting off the season right, the Bengals defeated Madeira, Newport, arch rival Woodward, and Purcell with little difficulty. The lone loss of the season came next. Playing Taft on their home court, the Tigers were easily defeated by the Senators. In the Tigers next two games they were victors over Anderson and Hughes.

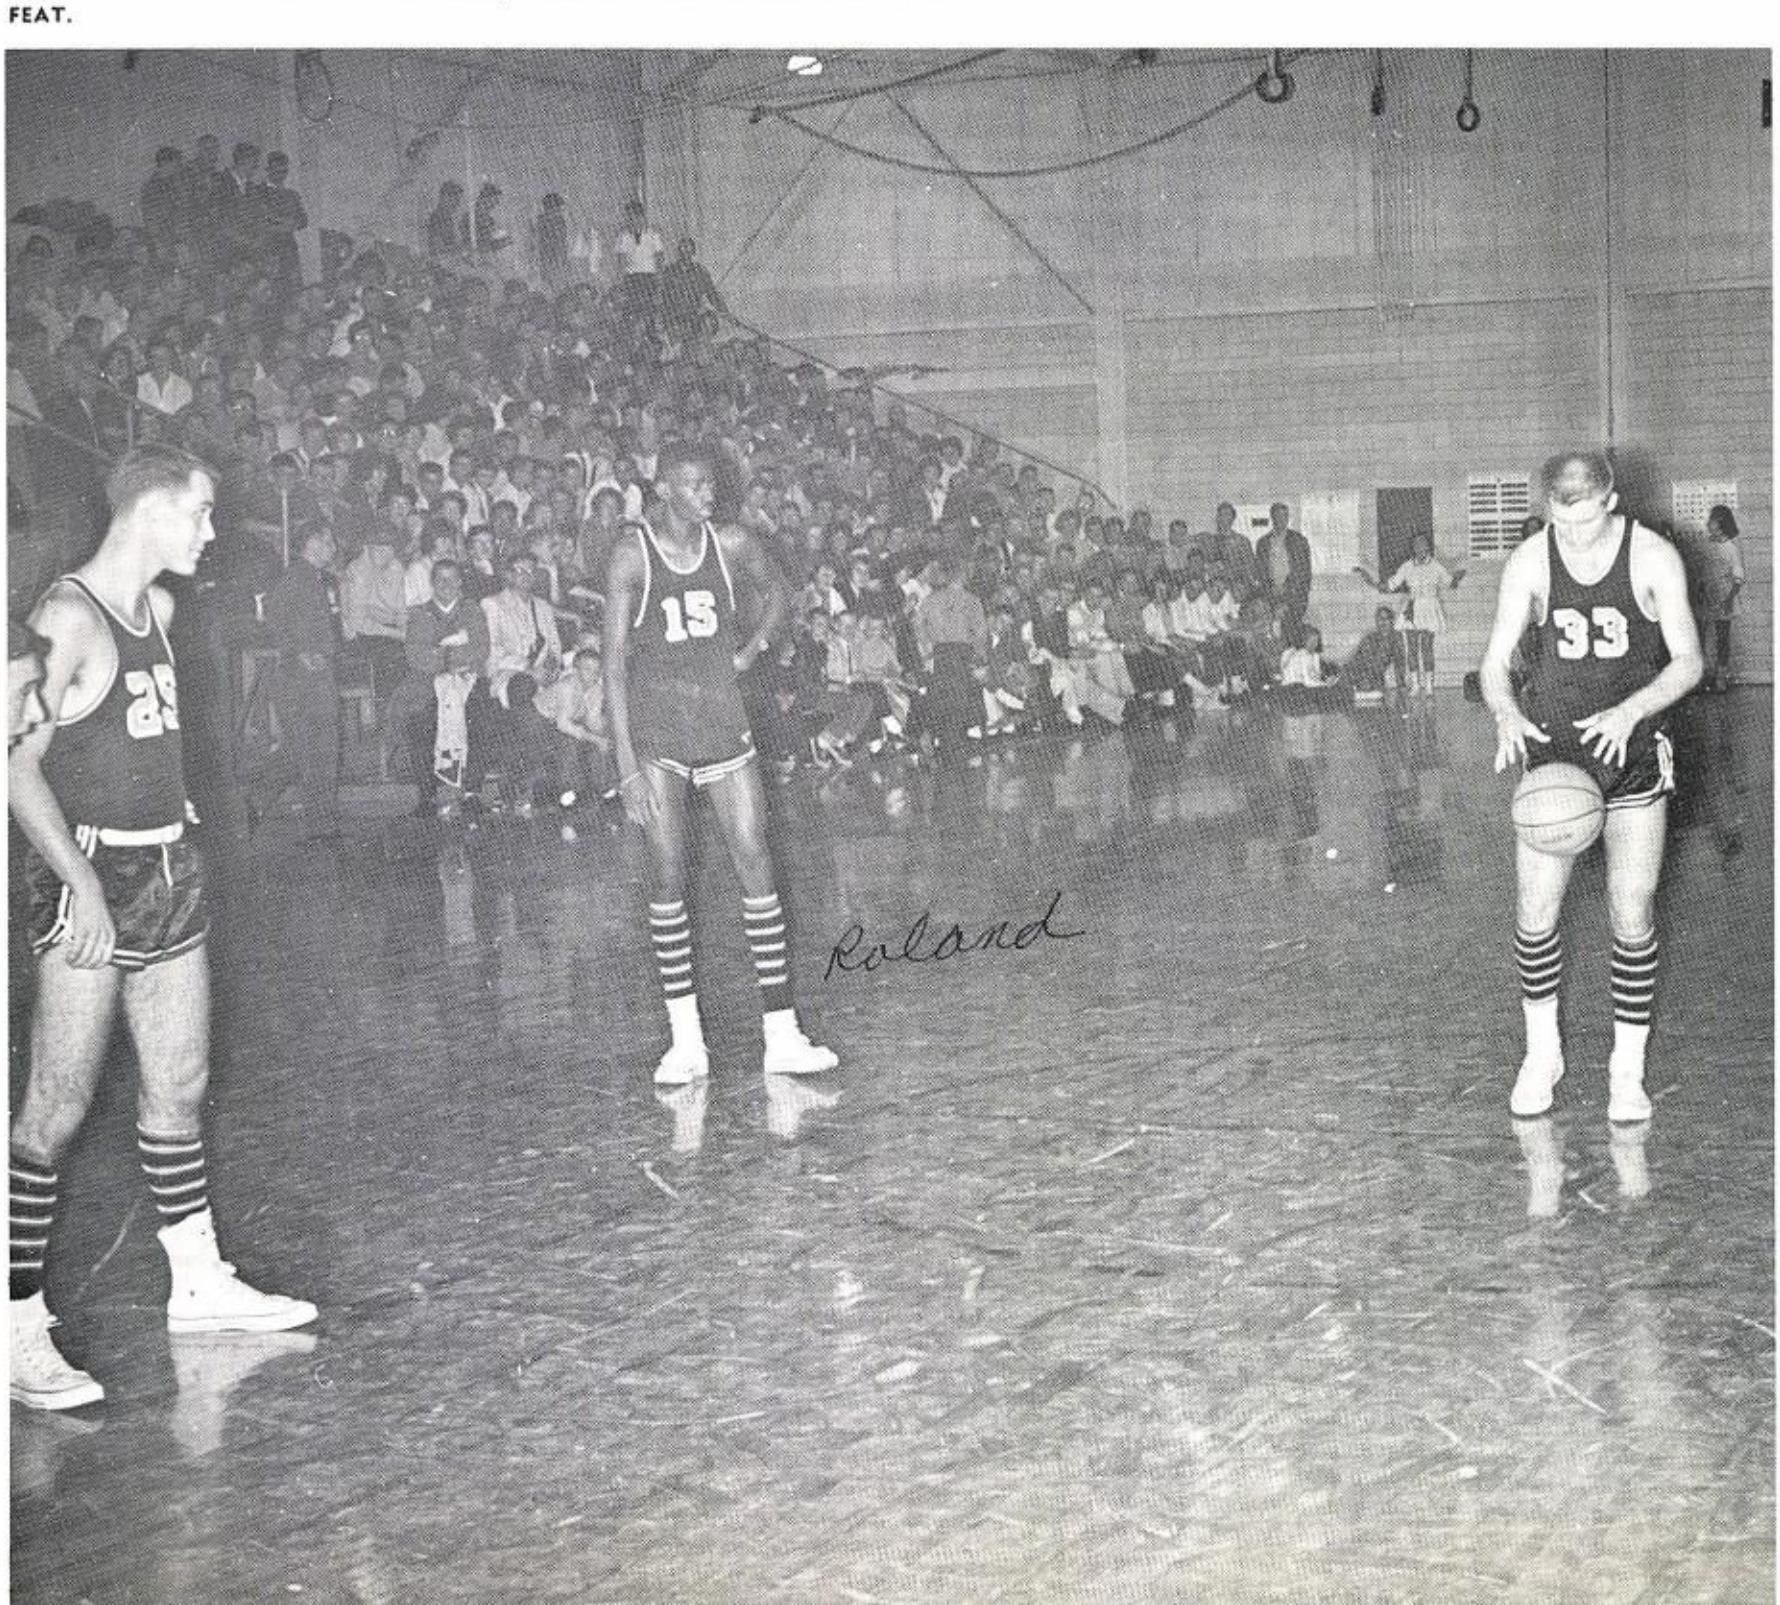
HIGH SCORING ROLAND WEST FIRES A JUMP SHOT FOR TWO MORE POINTS DESPITE HEAVY COMPETITION AND A DETERMINED PURCELL SQUAD.

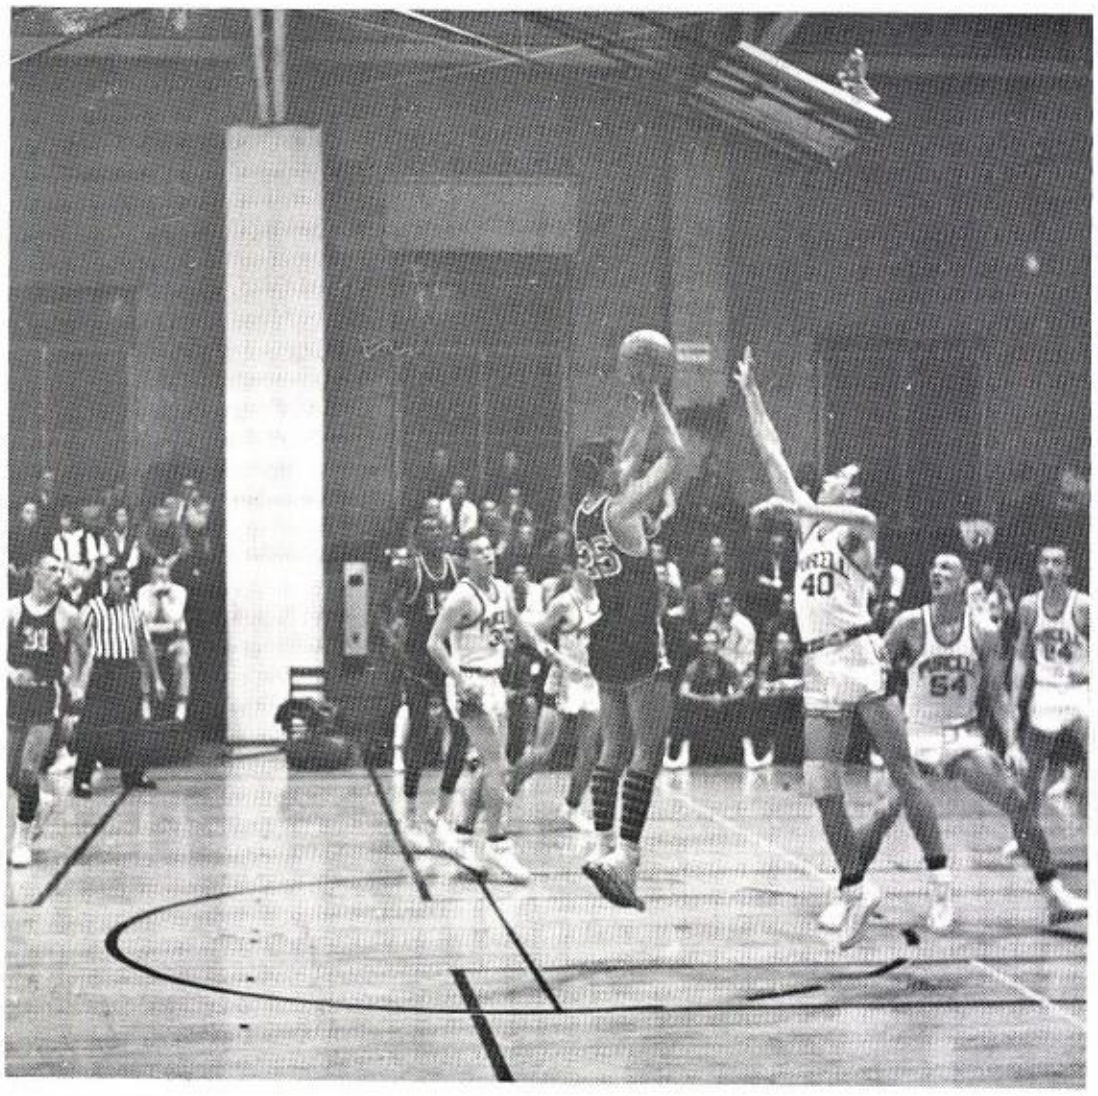
Those explosive Tigers of Withrow showed fans exciting basketball this year. Combining the fabulous shooting of Charlie Orr and Roland West, the aggressive rebounding of Steve Coaston and Richard West and the brilliant defensive work of Bill Ferone and Mike Duermit, the boys clad in the orange and black easily rolled over all their foes. The first game with cross town rival Western Hills turned into a farce as the Bengals scored a record 98 points. In the second encounter the Mustangs were rougher but Withrow still won easily. The next few games showed superior strength, as Withrow beat Oak Hills and Woodward by 13 and 21 points respectively. The Tigers did not have much trouble with Walnut Hills, Hughes, and Central this season. They defeated the Big Reds, Eagles, and Knights by large margins.



RECOGNIZING THE IMMEDIATE DANGER, ORR DECIDES TO PASS.

ANALYZING THE SITUATION CAREFULLY, FORWARD JIM NICHOLS PREPARES TO MAKE A SHOT THAT WILL EITHER LEAD TO VICTORY OR DEFEAT.

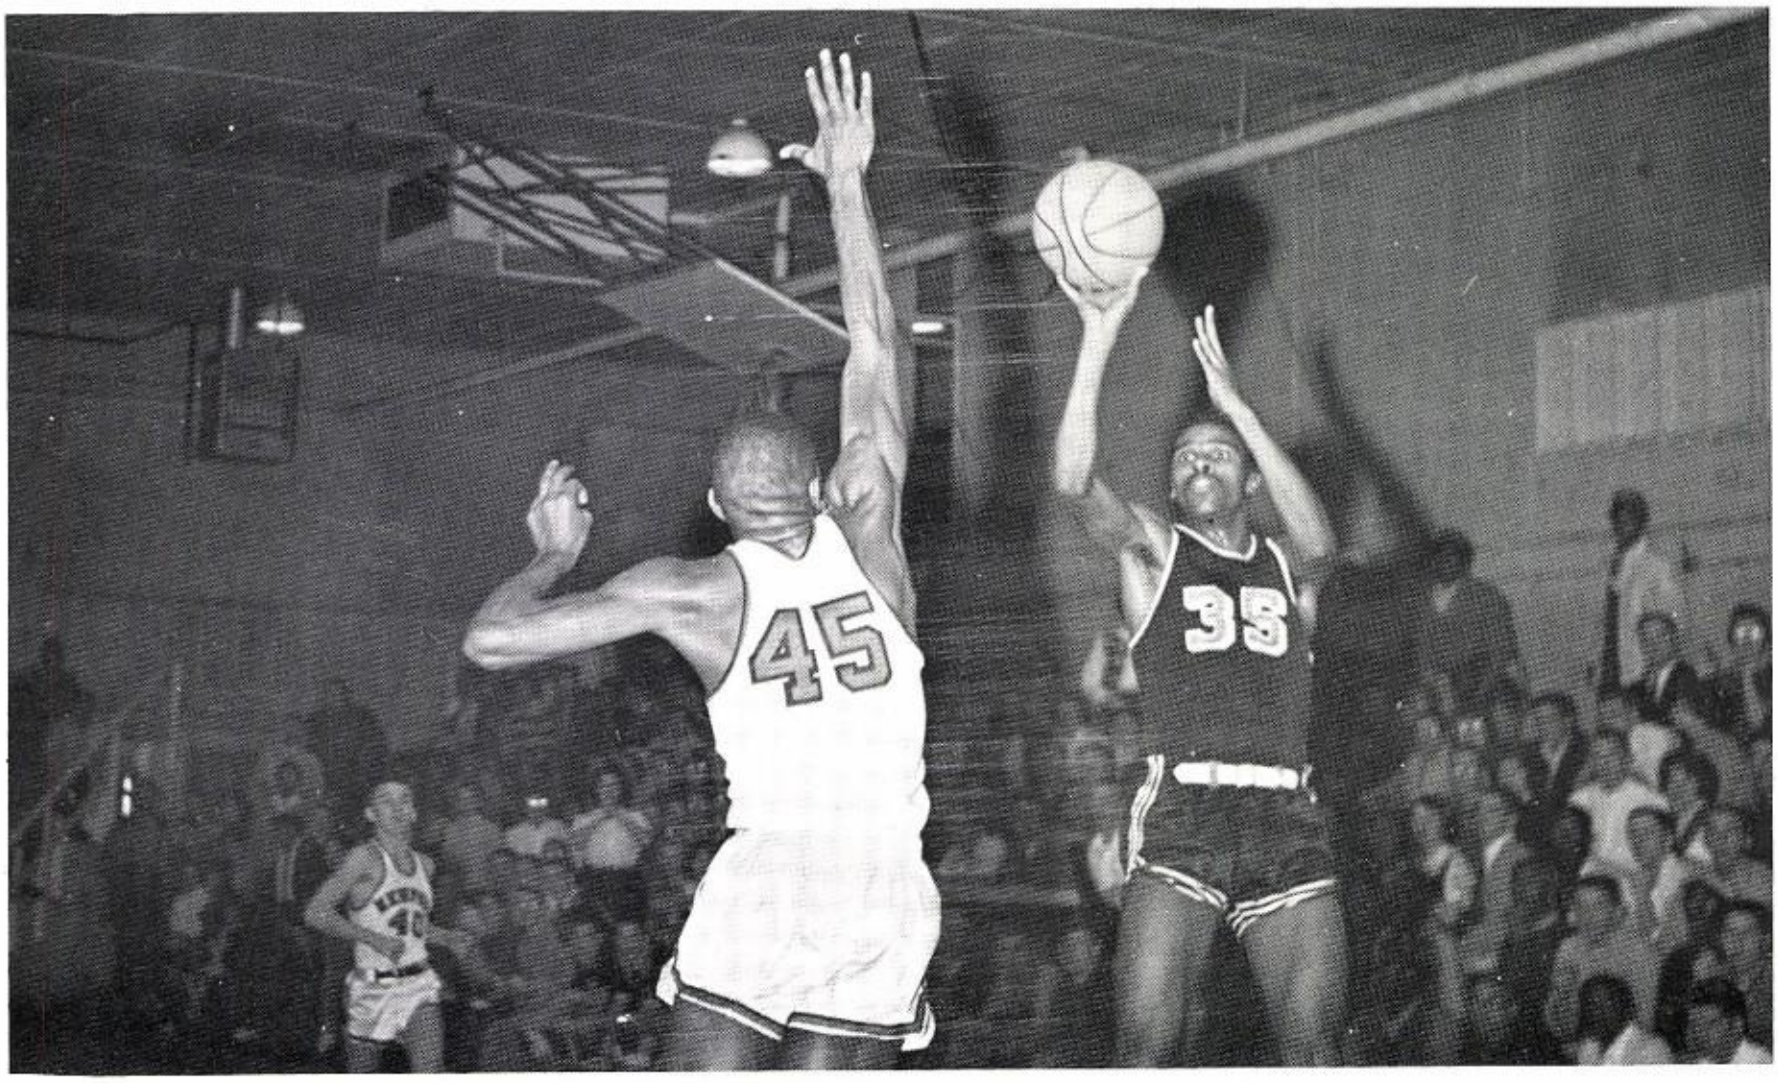




OVER OUTSTRETCHED ARMS, TIGER BOB JOHNSON ATTEMPTS A SHOT FOR TWO POINTS.

All of Withrow's games were exciting this year, but three have specific value to all patriotic Tiger fans. The Taft game played at Withrow was particularly exciting for two reasons. First the Senators and the Tigers were tied for first place in the close PHSL race, and secondly Taft had embarrassed the Bengals with a humiliating nineteen point defeat earlier in the season. The game was exciting all the way and, with two minutes left and the score tied, Taft went into a stall. With only five seconds left, star guard Charlie Orr stole the ball and went down for a layup and victory. Another memorable victory this year was at Middletown. Playing the highly rated Middies, the Tigers were looking for revenge for last year's one point loss to them. Playing tremendous ball, Withrow won by eight points. Beating highly rated Central for the league title was very exciting for all loyal Withrow followers.

WITH GRACE AND EASE WITHROW'S HIGH SCORING FORWARD, RICHARD WEST, ATTEMPTS A WELL EXECUTED SHOT TO HELP RAISE THE SCORE.



WITH THE POISED CONSISTENCY THAT MADE HIM ONE OF THE CITY'S TOP BALLPLAYERS, CHARLIE ORR TAKES AIM FOR ANOTHER FIELD GOAL.

As in many other activities, basketball has its group of boys who sometimes never get to be seen in action or whose names never get printed in the paper. Withrow is extremely proud of this group of dedicated, athletic minded boys who are known as the "Second String." These boys attend every game; they sit watching and anxiously waiting for their chance to play. This same group of boys also vie with the first string players for their positions, and whenever any player on the first string slacks off in his playing, one of the second string players will be put in as a substitute. The second squad was made up of boys having great potential basketball ability, but because of lack of height, grades, or inexperience they did not quite make the first string line-up. This year's second starting line-up was composed of Gary Hess, Al Fischer, Jim "Nick" Nichols, Bob "Jumpshot" Johnson, Nat "Fatman" Chrisman, and "Razor" Ross Orr.

ANXIOUS BENGALS WAIT FOR THE REBOUND WHILE MIKE SHOOTS FOR ANOTHER FIELD GOAL.

Reserve Cheerleaders: J. Eveler, S. Cordrey, K. Thompson, B. Saunders, C. McMullen, S. Dials.

Coached by John Bryant, this year's squad compiled a record of nine wins and eight losses. They started off slowly, losing five out of their first six games they played. The reservists lost all of their non-league games, being defeated by Oak Hills, Anderson, Middletown, Newport Public, and Madeira. They were more successful in the league, winning nine, losing three. Placing second in the PHSL, they had victories over Walnut, Hughes, Western, Central and Woodward. They lost to Taft twice, and to Hughes by one, seven, and two points respectively. The captains of this year's squad were Ross Orr and Richard Cook. On this year's reserve team are several prospects for next year's varsity. High scorers Ross Orr and Richard Cook, fiery guard Martin Abney and two tall rebounders, Paul Williams and Dennis Smith are tops among the young talent. With the fine array of sharpshooters coming up, next year's club ought to be good.

All of Withrow's Basketball teams this year had fine seasonal and league records, and the junior high team was no exception. Coach Roger Zwayer had little trouble computing an undefeated league record. None of the six junior high teams in the Eastern League were much competition, as the junior Tigers defeated Lyon, Ach, Shroeder, Woodward, Cutter, Walnut Hills, and Eastern Hills by large margins. Many of the players on this year's quintet are excellent varsity and reserve prospects for next year. Mark Todd, Peter Cobb, Willie Grisby, Clarence Adams, and Perry Williams are some of the outstanding boys who should be clad in orange and black for the next few years. The fundamental purposes of junior high basketball are to teach the boys the arts of rebounding, passing, and defense, to promote the competitive spirit and the most important thing of all, to inspire good sportsmanship to teammates and opponents during and after the game.

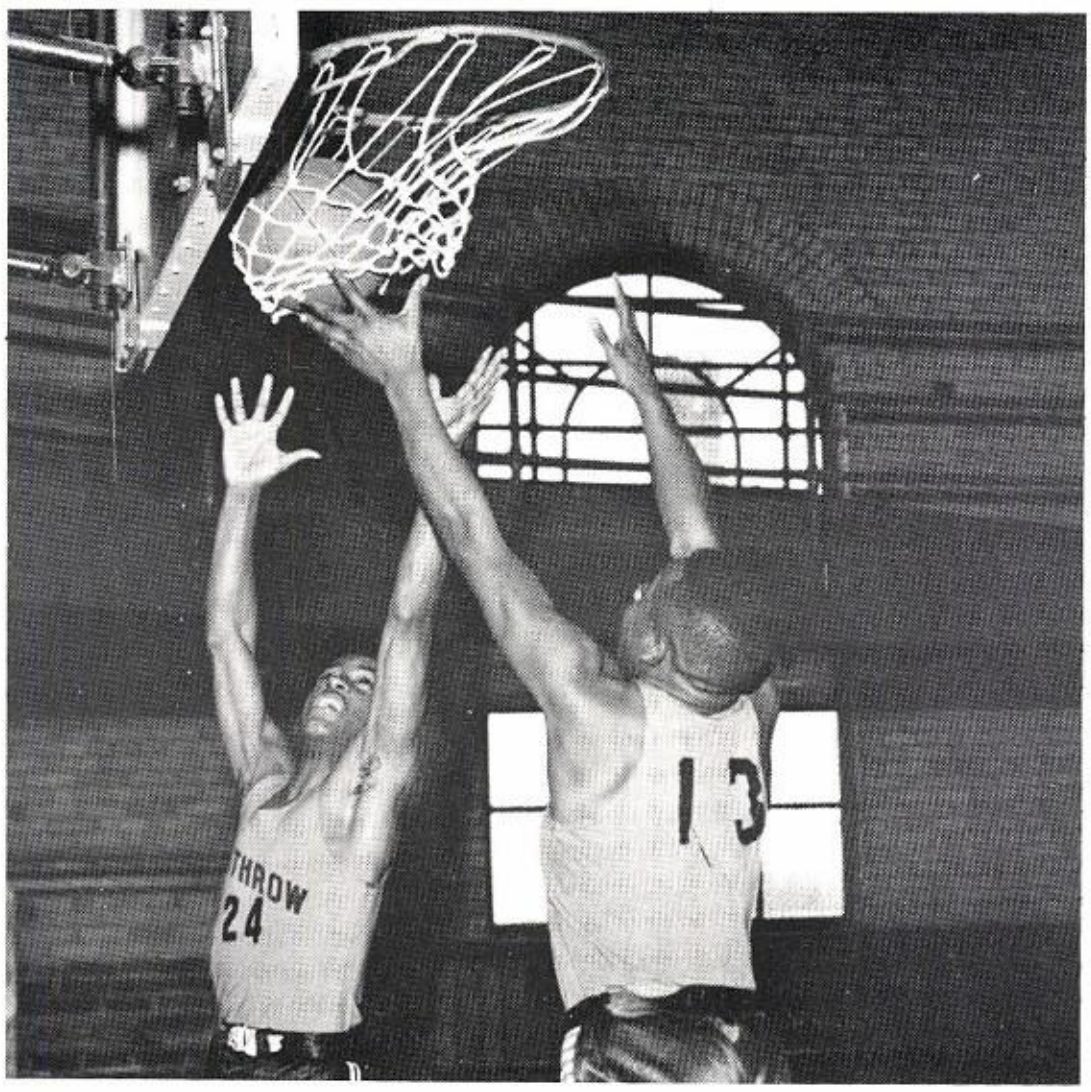
JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

WORKING ON THE FUNDAMENTALS, JUNIOR TIGERS HUSTLE IN WARM-UP PRACTICE.



The Junior High Reserve Basketball team had an interesting but not too successful season, finishing the season with seven wins and eight losses, the seventh and eighth grade Tigers showed consistent improvement all through the season. With an apparent lack of shooting accuracy throughout the squad, coaches Hunt and Simmons decided that to win they must stress tight defense and rebounding to the boys. Playing such aggressive teams as Ach, Lyon, Eastern Hills, Walnut Hills, Woodward, and Schroeder, the Bengals did not always come out on the winning end, but gave each team a rugged and exciting battle. Since there are no athletic leagues in elementary school this is only the first or second year these boys have taken part in organized play. The primary objective of the coaches of these boys is to emphasize the fact that no matter what the situation is they must act like good sports.

MR. HIGGINS ABLY COACHED THE TROPHY-WINNING CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM THIS YEAR.

CROSS COUNTRY

Running cross-country would be an interesting and exciting sport for any athlete. This year's cross-country team had a very successful season. Winning the Public High League Championship and placing very high in the Southwest Ohio District Finals, the Tigers showed tremendous speed and endurance. Frank Doyle, Charlie Brooks, and George Meadows were three of the top seniors on the squad. The team was blessed with two outstanding juniors; John Blair and Al Fischer placed very high in all the city meets. Getting the boys in shape for the meets would be a hard job for any coach, but Withrow is very fortunate in having an excellent coach, Mr. Howard Higgins. Running miles each day and doing hours of calisthenics proved very helpful as the boys placed high in all runs.

TRACK TEAM

AGILE TRACK MEMBERS ENGAGE IN A BIT OF CLOWNING TO LOOSEN UP BEFORE PRACTICE.

A very interesting thing about track is that there is a place for any sort of athlete on the team. A good halfback from the football team may also be an excellent sprinter while a lineman could become an artist at shotput. Basketball players who go out for the track team develop into fine high jumpers or pole vaulters. The size or shape of the boys vary a great deal but one thing is true for each one—every boy is in his maximum physical condition. The excellent condition of these boys can be a credit to their capable coach, Roger Zwayer. The coach directed hours of push-ups, sit-ups, and other calesthenics. In Withrow's first three meets the tigers were victorious by scoring a first, second, or third in each event.

PRACTICING THE PROPER EXERCISES IS A VERY IMPORTANT FACTOR IN CONDITIONING THE SQUAD FOR THE FORTHCOMING TRACK SEASON.

VARSITY BASEBALL

When the first air of spring came about this year, many of Withrow's boys went looking for their gloves, put some polish on their spikes, and dug up their balls to commence with this year's Tigers' baseball season. At the squad's first practice over sixty boys showed up in an all-out effort to make the team. After several weeks of hard work Coach Willie Ernst had made his selection of the right men to fill each position on the field. One group of boys who are always important members of the team are the pitchers, and Withrow was blessed with six very good ones. The three starting hurlers for the Bengals are fastballer Donald Shellabarger, Crafty right hander Wendell Mettey, and stallwart Bill Ferone. The relief pitchers were Edgar Boston, Johnny Lewis, and Bob Scribner. There were many other excellent ball players at the different positions for the Orange and Black. The infield was made up of Elliot Green at first and Eddie Edmonson at second; Cookie Walker played at short stop, and Lee Sledge was in charge of the hot corner. In the outfield there were Bob Buerkle in right, Charlie Brooks in center, and Steve Conway was in left field. Behind the plate for the Tigers were the capable Mike Moody and Bob Johnson. In the first game of the season the Tigers' Ferone showed his finest ability in defending the Eagles of Walnut Hills 1-0 in a thrilling mound duel. In Withrow's second encounter the mound staff once more showed excellent work by holding Deer Park to one run while the Tigers scored three. In our next two we did not have as much success. In the game against Purcell Withrow blew an early three run lead and the Cavaliers went on to win with some late inning rallies, 7-3. In another pitching duel the West High Mustangs came out on top 3-1. In the next game we had a slugfast with Woodward, and the Bengals came up on top 13-9 in a game filled with many home runs. Withrow was the loser in its next three games by close scores to Central, Hughes, and always rugged Elder, by scores of 5-3, 6-4, and 2-1 respectively.

ONE OF WITHROW'S EXCELLENT BATTERS IS SHOWN HERE IN PRACTICE FOR THE COMING SEASON WHICH LASTED FROM APRIL THROUGH JUNE.

An important part of every team is the managers. Escorting the squad to each game these boys have the difficult task of keeping track of baseballs; bats, and other equipment. They also have the job of making a record of the at-bats, hits, extra base hits, errors, and other important data of each boy on the team. The managers on this year's baseball squad are two giant football players, William Good and David Herrin. Keeping tabs on the equipment is an extremely difficult job. Finding all the balls, bats, and bases is a very tedious job, and after every practice or game the boys are loaded down like pack horses carrying the things back to the club house. The ball team owes much to this season's managers for their patient help in making this year a success.

It is very difficult for a coach to come to a new school and have a successful season, but it is even more difficult to return to your alma mater and be successful. This year's baseball coach, Mr. Will R. Ernst, returned to Withrow to be the coach of the baseball team. He attended Withrow a few years ago and was an all-city basketball player. Later, attending the University of Cincinnati, he became a success with the Bearcats. Earlier this year Mr. Ernst coached the Tiger basketball squad while Mr. Huheey was in the hospital. Selecting the right men for the team was very difficult. By giving every boy an equal opportunity he came up with the right man for each position. Through his patient guidance and non-partial attitude he has shown the boys the right way to play the No. 1 national sport—baseball.

GOLF CLUB

MEMBERS OF THE GOLF TEAM WATCH INTENTLY AS MR. FILBIN GIVES A DEMONSTRATION.

Almost every evening after school this spring you could find the boys on the golf team practicing their driving, chipping, and putting. The art of golf is quite difficult to master. You may drive a ball 250 yards straight down the middle on one hole and then slice your next drive into the other fairway. The job of trying to correct the faults of the boys on the team was given to their able coach, Mr. Richard Filbin. Working patiently with each one, he taught them the proper grip of the club, the right iron to use, how far the feet should be apart, and many other important factors. Many top golfers on the team were underclassmen. Tom Simpson and Al Fischer were juniors, while Dick Sawyer and Terry Root were Sophs.

Tiger Club has been in existence for nineteen years, but has only been revised and active since 1959. Under the able and spirited guidance of Mr. James Williams the boys in the club sponsored the Football Honor Dance, Spring Sports Picnic, and the All Sports Banquet. Tiger Club has the unique honor of being the only club at Withrow whose singular purpose is to give help and service to the school in any way possible, and to foster the spirit of fellowship among athletes. Among the many services rendered by this club are the operation of the concession stand at home football and basketball games, selling and collecting game tickets, helping at track meets, and doing physical maintenance work on the football field. Boys may gain membership in Tiger Club by the earning of a varsity letter in any sport. Led by senior Butch Williams, Tiger Club enjoyed a very successful year.

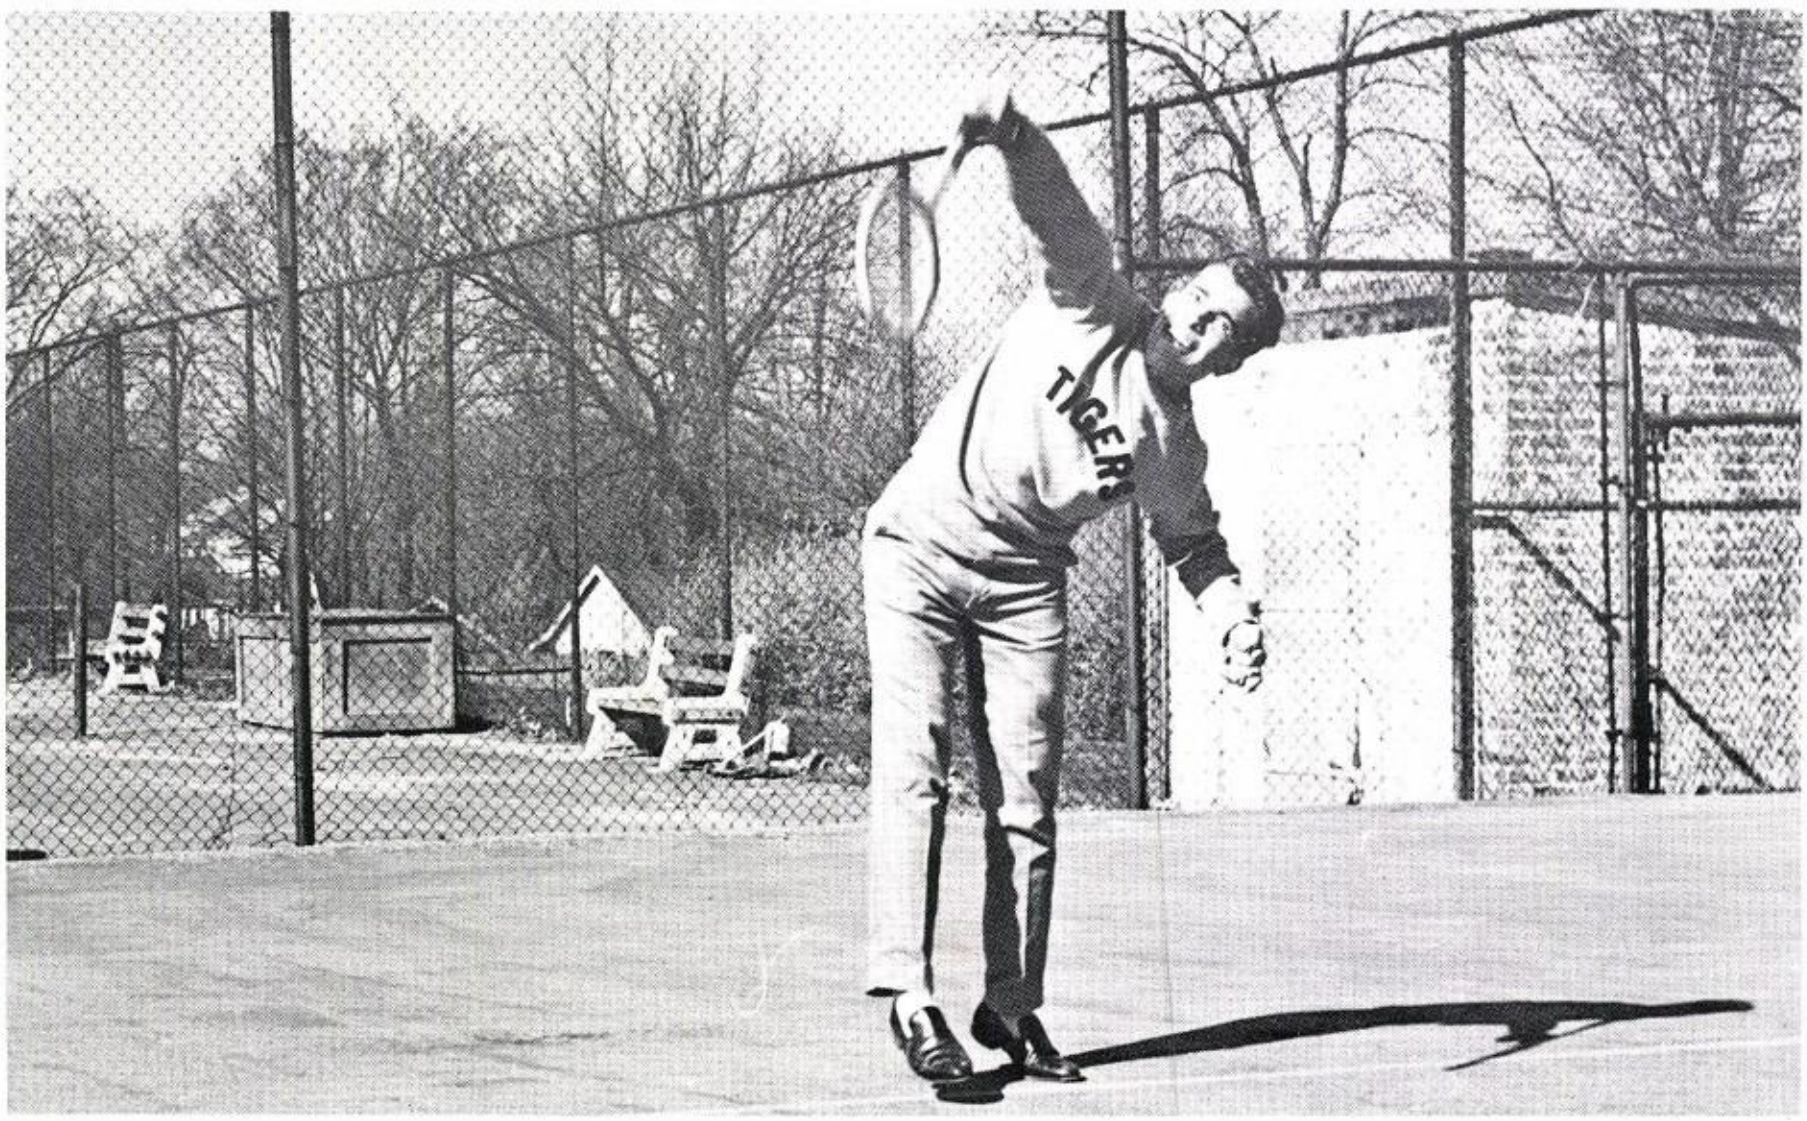
ROY KIESSLING SHOWS HIS SKILL AS THE NO. 1 SINGLES MAN WHEN HE PERPLEXES THE OPPOSITION WITH ONE OF HIS DAZZLING SERVES.



Guided by the energetic and amiable Mr. David Mather the varsity tennis team underwent a series of spring drills in preparation for the coming tennis season. At last, after hours of strenuous practicing, the long-awaited day came as the team lost their first match, being defeated by a really tough Wyoming squad, 4-1. They rebounded, to take a 5-0 victory over hapless Hughes. The squad then dropped two straight, falling prey to a spirited Woodward team, 4-1, and losing to unsurmountable Walnut, 4-1. The team snapped their two game losing streak as they topped Western 4-1. With a little better than half the season to go, the squad could hope to become one of the toughest contenders in the league for the P.H.S.L. crown. With new talent coming up in the way of singles players, they would undoubtedly do well in the district tournament. This year, the team had entered a new league—The Ohio Valley League—in which 13 schools were competing. The boys were looking forward to these tournaments with the hope of bringing the district trophy to Withrow. They won in past years and could expect to this year.

It was a year of tough competition for the Withrow mermen. However, by submerging themselves in their work and spending long hours in practice, the aquatic squad finished fourth in the city meets. Strength came mostly through senior lettermen, Archiable, Kidd, Booth, Jones, Moore, and Deck, all strong in particular strokes. Juniors such as Garula backed them up with solid support in strokes. Diving power came from the sophomore class in the form of John Keller. The real power, however, was teamwork.

DISTRICT CHAMPS

BY HOISTING HERO CHARLIE ORR ON THEIR SHOULDERS WITHROW PATRONS SHOW APPRECIATION TO TIGERS FOR DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP.

This was the most thrilling ga of the entire season. Charles, Roland, Richard and the rest, really did a wonderful job.

When tournament time came around this year, the Tigers were more than ready for it. Being top seeded, the Tigers displayed their superior strength right off in their first game against Elder; they defeated them by a large margin. In last year's finals we defeated the top rated Panthers in a close game, but this year it was no contest, as the Tigers won 80-65. In the second round we beat Madeira 63-35. Soundly whipping the Mustangs earlier in the season, Withrow had more trouble this game. Led by Roland and Dick West, the Tigers nipped them with a burst out in the final minutes. Purcell was little competition this year. Exhibiting some fabulous shooting and ball handling, the Bengals knocked off their GCL rival by a score of 79-66. The district semi-finals gave the Tigers two of their most exciting games, McNicholas and Taft. During a tight nip-and-tuck first half with the Rockets, a free-for-all broke out with both teams and about 150 spectators embarking in an enormous fight on the court. After everything was calmed down, the Tigers started to play good basketball and went on to win 66-54 in a comparatively dull second half. In a thrilling down-to-the-wire battle the Bengals knocked off the Taft Senators for the district championship. Dependable Charlie Orr hit two foul shots with eleven seconds to go to give Withrow a three point lead and insure victory. The final score was 57-56. We lost to Chaminade by one point in the regionals to finish the season with a 22-2 record.

Never in my life have I seen such School spirit. It sweeps you away like the tide.

GAA BOARD

The diversified activities of GAA ran smoothly and provided fun and healthful exercise for its members, thanks to the efforts of the hard-working leaders. The advisers who stayed after school long hours to supervise the tournaments and games, the officers who took care of the business of the club, the managers who directed the individual sports—these people were the very backbone of the Girls' Athletic Association.

GAA SPORTS

The Girls' Athletic Association began its year with an assembly with an amusing skit to acquaint newcomers with the rules and goals of the organization and the opportunities which it provided. To satisfy the adventurous natures of its fun-loving members, GAA gave them a variety of seasonal sports to keep them active constantly. Besides the three major sports—volleyball, basketball, and softball—the girls could try a hand at tennis, hockey, archery, bowling, badminton, or ping-pong, to name a few. In order to raise the money necessary for their annual scholarship, the GAA'ers sold their famous apples, held a dance, "Rickshaw Sway," and sold programs at the games. During the Christmas season, students were cheered by the sight of their familiar tree in the main hall. All through the year, the girls worked hard, accumulating both muscles and points. At the Honor Night Banquet at the end of the year, the most skillful athletes were rewarded with bracelets, charms, and trophies, and the Honor Girl of the year was chosen. As another busy school year ended and Tigers everywhere reviewed the accomplishments and good times it had brought, the members of this club were one group who could look back with a deep sense of achievement, both for themselves and their school.

"I SHOT AN ARROW INTO THE AIR: IT LANDED I KNOW NOT WHERE." AFTER MANY HOURS OF PRACTICE, IT HITS THE BULLSEYE MORE OFTEN.

"YOU'RE OUT!" YELLS THE UMPIRE, BUT THERE ARE NO HARD FEELINGS; IT IS ALL IN FUN, AND GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP PREVAILS IN GAA.

GAA GIRLS MUST HAVE A WAY TO WORK OFF ALL THAT SPRING ENERGY, AND THIS THEY DO BY "RAISING A RACKET" ON THE TENNIS COURTS.

From ballet to the hula, the girls of GAA's Chorean Dance Club really toed the mark. On Thursday afternoons, toe-tappers from all part of Tigertown gathered in the gym where they sought to perfect their agility by practice. Under the direction of Mrs. Bertram and their president, Sue Schlegel, they developed greater poise and skill while enjoying the friendship of others who shared their own interests. This group helped to make the Minstrels a success by contributing ponies to the cause. A program for their mothers, featuring dances of other lands, was the year's climax.

The Junior High Girls' Athletic Association kept their members of the Tiger Parade in excellent physical condition. Miss Robinson and Miss Stauss helped the managers organize the games. Each of these little Tigertowners was in charge of the sport in which she was particularly interested. The sportsminded girls, chosen by the junior high board at the end of the year, were responsible for distributing and putting the equipment away after all the games. The seventh grade girls always found an extended hand of welcome waiting them if they desired membership in the organization. Colorful posters, made by the members, stimulated interest and enthusiasm in the female paraders, planning on joining the superior activities of junior GAA.

JUNIOR HIGH SPORTS

Row 1: S. Gwinner, B. Morris, B. Harris, M. Chestnut. Row 2: T. Hoolihan, S. Donald, S. Hennesy.

The junior Tigertown members of GAA produced reinforcements for their senior sister organization. As every parade needs new, fresh, and well-trained people to take over the positions the old members relinquish—thus was the Tiger parade. The young Tigers developed their skills in volleyball, basketball, and softball. In the fall of the year the girls learned the art and fundamentals of soccer—the sport helpful in mastering hockey. To stress individuality, badminton, tennis, tumbling, and Dolphin club were offered. Muscles were strengthened either by throwing the baseball, running the dash, or broad jumping. Each girl saw to it that the slow or weak was given a helping hand, and a place was found for everyone.

Is winking a very sweet & cute girl. May your have the best of luck in everything you do. Stay sweet + I know you'll go far in life.

Love ya,
Your daughter,
Gail

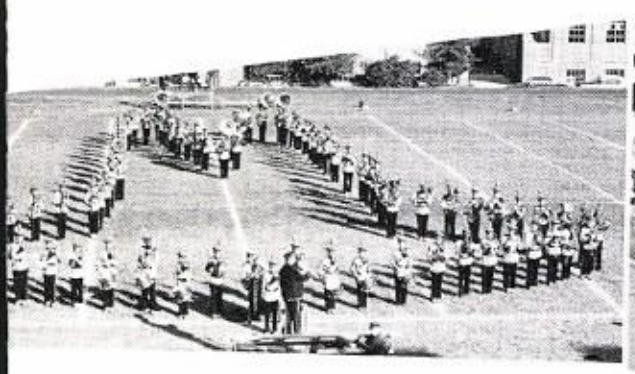
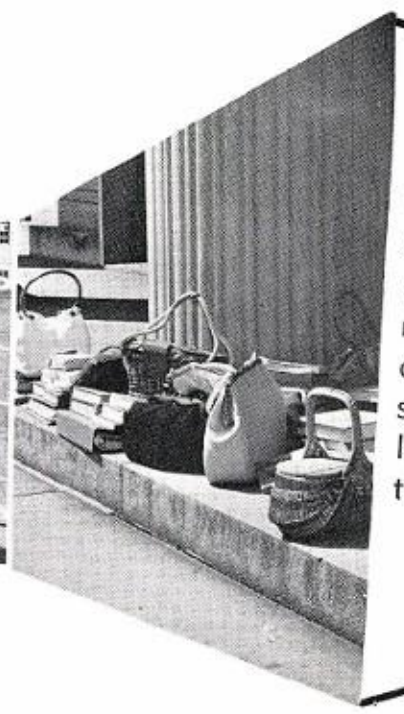
UNDERCLASS PARADE





"Mighty oaks from little acorns grow." So it followed with our Tiger underclassmen. Starting in junior high, they marched onward and upward, casting completed goals behind them in their search for knowledge. Little Tigers looked hopefully toward the day when they would emerge—seniors.

Ninety years ago, in 1867 the Fred Pagels Stg. Co. entered the moving and storage business with the most modern equipment . . . horse drawn vans. In Memoriam

Mr. Emery Gates

Tragedy struck Withrow on April ninth with the sudden death of Mr. Emery Gates. Both students and teachers give warm accounts of many aspects of the personality of this man who taught English at our school for sixteen years, was in charge of Minstrel end men eight years, and served as adviser of FTA. One student tells of the time he spent over two hours helping her interpret a modern poem for a college English course, and a fellow teacher speaks of the poetry he wrote himself, but was reluctant to discuss. A lover of all the fine arts, Mr. Gates was responsible for rescuing from the trash heap a painting done more than thirty years ago by a girl from Withrow, Carolyn Lord. In memory of this instructor who took such an interest in the school, a group of teachers are having the painting of "Molly" restored and a flowering tree planted outside the teachers' lounge, in which the picture hangs. An incident which reveals Mr. Gates' somewhat dignified sense of humor is the time he marched two boys into Mr. Owens' office and announced, "Mr. Owens, I just apprehended these two gentlemen fumigating their adenoids with nicotine." One teacher here at Withrow aptly sums up Mr. Gates' total personality by saying, "He was such a sweet gentleman."

To Winky,

As the petals of life
one by one fall, let it not be said that each did fall without some momentous event. So you have yet to graduate — but still each day holds something valuable for you, lover.
Don't ever get too big that you can't stoop down to help someone.

Your only love,
K.M.A.

(Walter)

P.S. Remember the sixth grade?
